Dear Alice,
It's really been swell knowing you and I hope we can see each other a lot in the near & far future.
George Dorr

Dear Alice,

Well, here we are about to graduate. It doesn't seem possible that we are terminating our high school life. But then we shall have bigger and better things to look forward to in college. But enough of the serious stuff. We sure have had fun drooling and mooning over certain people. Remember
"P" Day when we went to see "Sylvanized"? The Senior Banquet was lovely wasn't it. It was a good thing Pita wore her "Blue". Well I can't reminisce much longer because we can't be late for class so I'll close.
Mary Jane Hess

P. S. Lots of luck & stuff.

Dear Alice,
It's sure been swell being in English and French Club with you. We sure had some good times together in English especially.
Maybe Dasha didn't think so. Well it has sure been ^{me} knowing you and I hope we can go to school together again. Not at Libbey though. Ha' Ha.
Well best of luck.
Bill Miller

Dear Alice,

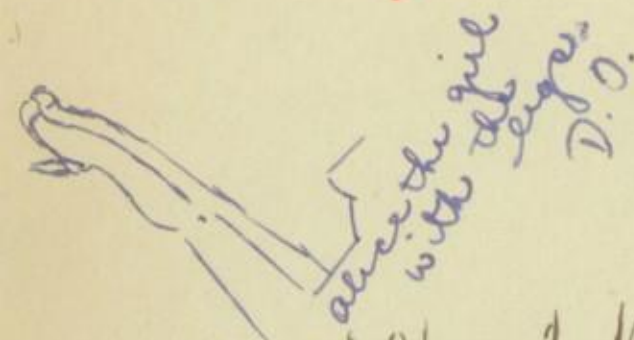

Hi kid how are you? In case you ever forget who I am think of Norma Salter's twin and you will remember best of luck in the future years and luck in love like I have ~~had~~ had. (can't even spell after 12 yrs of school.)

Dear Alice,
well, our high school career is just about over. I can remember you so well in Miss Smith's room. You were one of the "star" students.
since there is so little space here,
I will have to
I say - Best of Luck - Always!

Dear Alice,
I'm just about out of words
to say to anyone.
I considered myself
a very lucky to be in a class with you.
Luck Always

Dear Alice,
You've been a swell friend all through high school. You work hard and I hope get as much success in the future or even more than you have in the past. Good luck
P. 7"

Dear Alice
from the first day in dear Gannie's room. we've gone through Libbey as friends. It has been swell knowing you and if we don't see each other after graduation, rest of luck and happiness
Always with love
P. 7"

Dear Alice,

We certainly have had a wonderful year. In fact, it's been a wonderful four years. You certainly do have the brains (I wish I had some of them) & Best wishes - see you at O.S.U.

To an intelligent chemistry student from one of stupidity, I wish you all the luck in the world

Dear Alice,
gone so quickly. Jolly, these years have club and the fun we had in French.
Good luck always and I know you'll far in anything that you do.

Dear Alice,
It has been grand and know my story
you, and know my story the French time, I was all because of you. I wish the best of everything for you. You are the storm!

Jimie Cox

Dear Alice,
It's been so wonderful knowing you. I'll never forget your French classes. I'll be successful I'll be successful. The best of

Dear Alice,
We finally made it through high school, or should I say I did! Boy, I couldn't begin to think of all the wonderful things we have done together. With all the church activities and school projects. The worst is at Lakeside.
I never will forget all the times we have had together. I certainly am looking forward to this summer.
So much of luck to a very swell girl you really deserve it. Best wishes at O.S.U.

Always, Baldwin
T.S.P.

Dear Alice,
 Well, well, well. Seniors & at last! So fun. Remember when we used to play croquet & tennis?
 we were champs at that. Although we you know
 call each other "stinky". Well, kid I see you this summer to a very wishing luck in the future Sweet girl!

Dear Alice.
 I've been missing you in study & football. I wish you time we had.
 I hope I hear from you soon.

Dear Alice,
 Please don't forget me, and please write to me next year. I'm going to miss you terribly.
 You're my honey, & always will be.
 Love & Kisses
 Babs.

Hi Alice
 I haven't seen you very much this year
 but I don't know you too well but you are a good egg that I know because you went to Sibley and graduated with me. and I consorted good fortune

Dear Alice,
 The four years are over at last. I've like I've been in high school half my life. but I've enjoyed it.
 I don't need to repeat what I since everyone sweet girl you are. I don't as a writer. I don't your friend.
 Shelly Smith

Dear Alice,
 I have had a lot of fun with you these past years in Rainbow and school.
 With your brains you are sure to go far. Lots of luck in the future.

ED ELIAN

Dear Alice,

This is a lot of work if you ask me. Well here it goes. I wish you had been in some of my classes during our great high school days.
 On second thought maybe that wouldn't have been so good. Harvard and Beverly were enough. I'd have been completely gone.
 I hope (this is killing me) I get to see you more this summer. Maybe you can come over and we can ride our bikes up the river and eat our lunch. Mary Jane is going to come over and we're going to do that sometime.

you're nuts if you think I can write on this
 bus. If you can read this you're a hero.

Now what was I going to say? ???
 We had fun at the banquet and I hope we can go to ~~back~~ eat together.

Dear Alice,

At last our four years of college is over.
You probably will go on to college. If you do
God bless you and help you to your success.
It's been swell being in French Club under you,
the President. We've all had fun doing things for one another. I know I have. Well here's wishing you all the best luck & happiness in the world.

in the world?

Dear Alice,
Don't be too bad, you can't be here next year so you could be president again.
Love,

LIBBEY'S WELL LOVED PRINCIPAL, MR. WILLIAMS

Dear Alice,
There is a note to me from your new class education, I do think I should write something to you. You're one of those people that I admire in a way because I don't have what they have; namely, the training & which I wish to inform you in good grades. I think it's well that you are well-informed, Alice.
I hope you will be a great success. Best of luck, Best of luck, Best of luck.

WALTER B. LYNN

W. B. Lynn

DEDICATION

Enthusiasm, kindliness, and a genial sense of humor endear a teacher to his classes and strengthen his own love of his profession. In Mr. Walter B. Lynn the students of Libbey find a man who is both teacher and friend.

Having secured his degree of Bachelor of Science at Heidelberg College, Mr. Lynn taught at Chillicothe, Ohio, and at London, Ohio, beginning first as a science instructor, but later changing to the field of mathematics. Two years after he came to Libbey, Mr. Lynn always an ardent football fan, became assistant line coach of football, and held that position until nineteen thirty-seven. Occasionally since that time he has served as a referee of football and basketball in Toledo. Among his hobbies Mr. Lynn lists reading first, perhaps, especially biography. Gardening affords him much pleasure, as does chess, a game in which he excels.

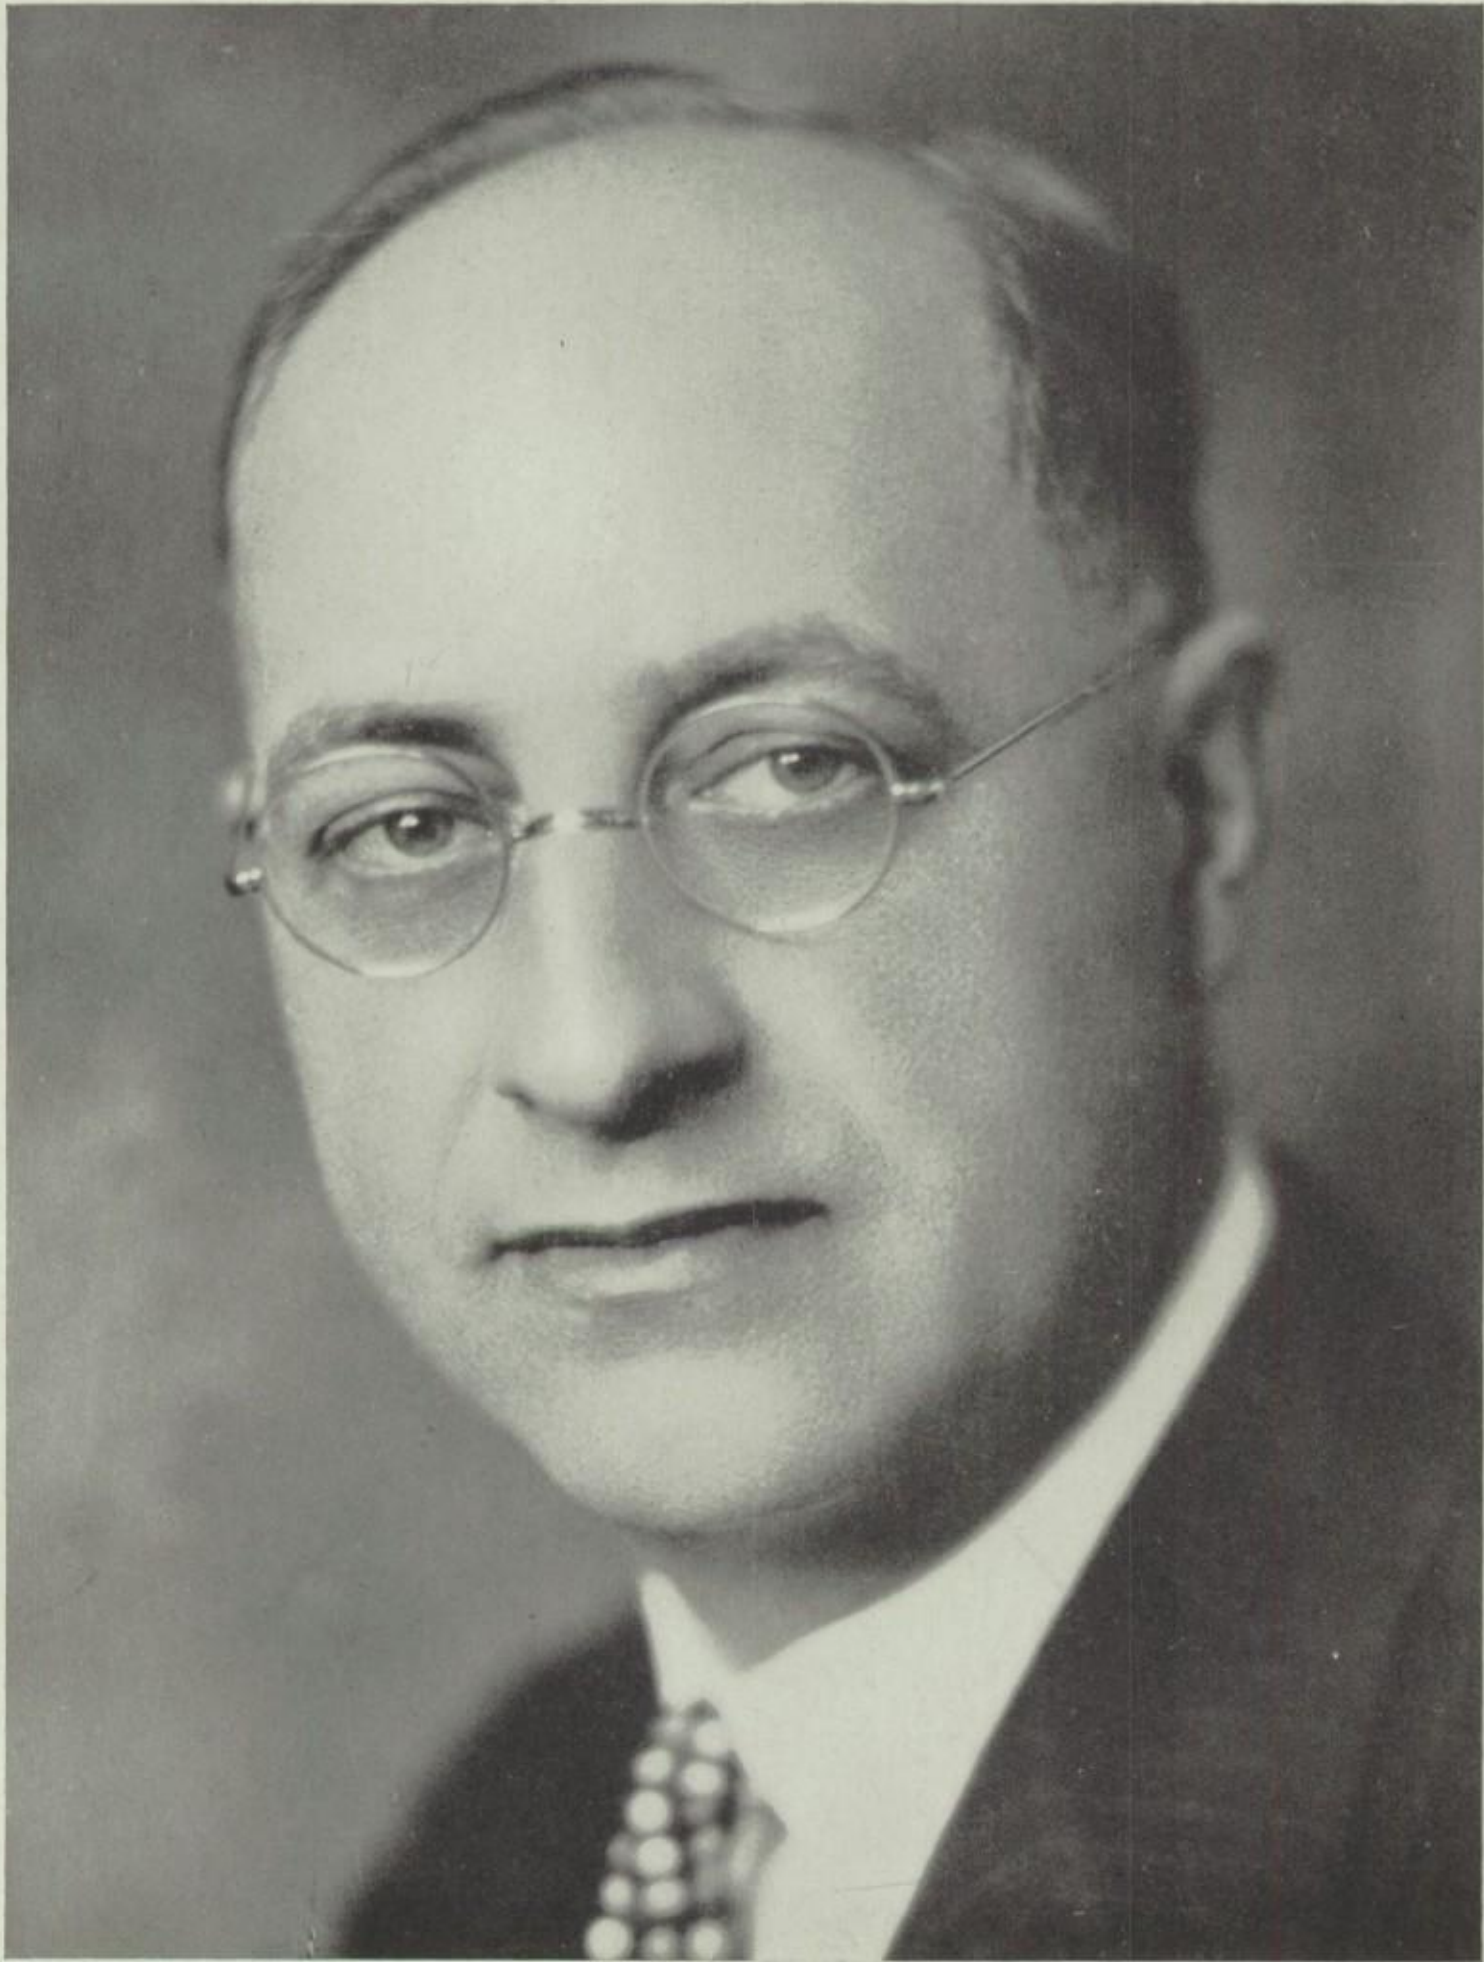

The students of Libbey have come to know and admire Mr. Lynn both as an instructor of plane and solid geometry and as a friend. He has come into contacts with many of us by his work as adviser of the Junior and Senior Classes; the National Honor Society; the Student Council; and the Chess Club. It is therefore with sincere appreciation and gratitude that we dedicate this Edelian of nineteen forty-seven to Walter B. Lynn, wishing him much success and happiness in his coming years.

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

Time has a ruthless way of marching on, piling up responsibilities that will not be shirked. To anticipate the demands of time is the duty of an administrator in education. Toledo is fortunate in having as Superintendent of Schools, Mr. Edward L. Bowsher, whose excellence in planning and executing a progressive program of instruction for our young people has won for him acclaim not only in Toledo, but in state and national educational areas as well.

HAROLD E. WILLIAMS

PRINCIPAL OF LIBBEY HIGH SCHOOL

Again a graduating class pays tribute to a great man! Although, because of his illness, he has been away for a long two years from the school he founded and developed into the splendid institution it is today, Mr. Williams has been in the hearts and minds of all of us constantly. Striving earnestly to perpetuate the ideals he has taught us both spiritually and academically, the Senior Class of 1947 wishes to reassure our principal and leader of our love for him and we pray that God may restore him to health so that he may return to Libbey!

RUTH ANNE DUSHA
Director of Edelian

Dear Alice,
It has been a great pleasure to have such a splendid student.

SALUTATORY

Many and diversified are the problems which face us in this complex world. Have we made unprecedented progress in scientific development only for the purpose of self-destruction, or can we use this knowledge wisely and unselfishly for the betterment of mankind? Is this world in which we now find ourselves one of shadowy standards and dissolving moralities? It is generally believed that moral law, no less than physical law, undergirds our world. Can we develop socially and politically to the point where all our activities will conform to this moral law?

We, the youth of today, must prepare ourselves to answer ultimately these questions and many more. We must face the issues involved and take an active part in the solution of these problems. It is a trite statement, but none the less true, that our education has only begun. "Instruction ends in the schoolroom, but education ends only with life." We need not only to increase our knowledge, but to develop our understanding and our spiritual resources.

Youth must be trained for leadership and our country with the help of its youth must accept its predestined position of leadership among the nations. America must play an active, constructive part in liberating all peoples. In order to have peace this world must be free. We recognize now that "there can be no peace for any part of the world unless the foundations of peace are made secure throughout all parts of the world."

Our western civilization and our assumed supremacy are now on trial. Surely this is no time to be complacent or to ignore world conditions. Many of the so-called backward peoples of the world will soon be looking at American youth with critical eyes and using us as a yardstick with which to measure the worth of the political system which produced us and the Christian ideals upon which our democracy was founded. Can we measure up to the responsibility so thrust upon us? Can our lives stand as proof of the value of our democratic system and Christian ideals? As we grow into adulthood, will we be courageous and unselfish enough to stand for what we know is right, even though it may cost us some of our own comforts?

Realizing that it has always been Libbey's aim to lay the foundations for high character, we sincerely appreciate the untiring and unselfish efforts of our teachers to bring out the best in us. We thank our parents for their help and faith in us. We owe a debt of gratitude to Principal Harold E. Williams for his inspiration and to acting Principal Loy Rusie for his helpful understanding and guidance. May we be devoted to making the utmost possible contribution to the improvement of this system of living together which we call civilization, to making the utmost contribution to the building of a better world.

ALICE INGLE.

VALEDICTORY

As we bid farewell to Libbey, we stop for just a moment and look around us—pause long enough to gain a perspective of this world and our place in it. We must now realize a philosophy of life, for we are men and women of the world.

Recalling the past years of our lives, we see the many guiding friends we have known and marvel at their purpose, patience, and love. We can express our appreciation in our way of life. Thanks to our parents is not a matter of words; it is a concern found only in the depths of our hearts.

Viewing the present, we find ourselves with hopes and dreams for the future. We are preparing to live successful lives in a sick, yet wonderful and challenging world. What is this dream of ours, this "success"?

If you could look into my heart, and I could see into yours, we would be friends, for the ultimate goal of ALL people is happiness and contentment. All human acts and deeds are efforts to reach that goal. Peace of mind; that is true success.

What then should we do to gain success? Each of us could from this time on be in rivalry and contention with all other people that we as individuals might realize a false material security. Many people have given their every effort to get everything for themselves and have ignored those who live around them. Yet we know that evil is derived from the selfish ambitions of those who think of success in terms of personal gain. Only sorrow and despair can result.

Join hands then. From this time on we seek happiness not only for ourselves, but for all people. Those who look alone soon become lost. When we go together each one is necessary to the others. No person on this earth is insignificant. The power to make the world a better place in which to live lies within every one of us. Let us recognize now as we enter, young and vigorous, upon life that through the use of our talents and energies we CAN work toward human betterment. We CAN build a better world for all. We CAN fill our small yet vital role in the search for happiness. If only we make tomorrow a little better because we have lived today, we shall know success.

Step slowly but firmly ahead. Good-bye Libbey. We go onward now to a rich and beautiful life, for we go together.

BRUCE BASHORE.

MEMOIRS OF THE GRAD

DEDICATION

These memoirs of four years of life at Libbey, experienced by the Graduation Class of 1947, we wish to dedicate to the Libbey Faculty, who contributed so largely to our achievements, and to the highly prized friendships formed through our mutual associations. May they be everlasting in their endurance.

CHAPTER I—BEWILDERED BUT VICTORIOUS FRESHMEN

Through the wide-flung portals of Libbey High, along with many upper classmen, streamed a group of bewildered and wide-eyed Freshmen. However, after a few days of taking misleading information and an abundant supply of jeering, they soon conquered their fears and became true Libbeyites, of which, we hope, the school has become proud and will continue to revere in the future. Mass meetings, activities, programs, bi-monthly movies, football and basketball games, provided a new and wonderful outlet for the exuberant spirit of these ambitious ninth grade students. There were, however, the dreaded exams which often proved to be as fatal as their forebodings had warranted.

Remember the day when so many Freshman faces beamed with surprise and joy upon receiving bids to the respective literary societies? For several days many happy hearts floated high among the clouds, but soon returned to earth upon hearing warnings of the strenuous initiation. At the conclusion of the Freshman year we had added many new links to our friendship chain.

CHAPTER II—SOPHISTICATED SOPHOMORES

September 1944—Once more the days of education began, but no longer were we bewildered as we entered the halls of Libbey. However, there were a few puzzled Sophomores, new recruits from Jones and Robinson Junior High Schools.

The golden "Cowboys" came through with a victorious season, bringing to Libbey the fame and glory of the State Championship. We were so proud of them, weren't we?

Over the gay festivity of the year a dark cloud loomed on the horizon. The death of two of our beloved teachers, Miss Voorheis and Mr. Cony, saddened the spirits of many Libbey students. However, their memory will continue to live in our hearts.

Would anyone care to buy a "Companion", "Colliers", or "Look" magazine? Do these words sound familiar? Of course, we remember the magazine drive. The free movies couldn't have been the incentive behind it all! The upper classmen were determined to make perfect salesmen out of us; even our parents seemed to weaken under our vibrant enthusiasm. Defense stamps, Red Cross, U.S.O. consumed the time and energy of many ambitious workers. Little did we imagine what a gigantic surprise the summer had in store, with the decisive climax of World War II by the deadly "Atomic" bomb.

CHAPTER III—UPPER CLASSMEN AT LAST

The happiness of again returning to school without the black shadow of war over our heads, was stilled by the astonishing news that our beloved Principal, Mr. Harold E. Williams, would be unable to share this happiness with us. As he had always done for any Libbey student, Mr. Williams had instilled into many members of the class, a flaming urge to do only that which is righteous and just. To this great man, the idol of all former and present students of Libbey, and to his brother, Dr. Charles Williams, we owe an appreciation and gratitude that mere words can never express. We hope our small tokens of cards and flowers have helped to ease our Principal's burden and that they may speed his recovery. Mr. Williams' position was taken over by our amiable and highly respected Mr. Loy Rusie, the former Dean of Boys. The latter position was occupied by Mr. John Osgood.

GRADUATING CLASS OF 1947

One of the first needs of an ambitious Junior Class is a group of highly efficient officers. This need was supplied by the election of Eugene Sund, president; Jim Fenner, vice-president; Mary Hirschy, secretary-treasurer; and Russell Crossman, sergeant-at-arms. What does every Junior await with eager anticipation? His ring. Of course! For chairman of this important committee we selected Sheldon Baldwin.

The successful Junior Class play "Cash and Carrie" was presented on April 5, under the direction of Miss Angela Costigan. Among the many other well-planned and very excellent events of the year was the Tri-Literary Dance which was planned by the members of the Phils, Zets, and Forum. To round-out the social events of the year, we had the long awaited, Junior-Senior Prom.

Outstanding among athletic activities of the year was the exciting victory of the Libbey Cagers over Macomber in the district tournaments; and even though Woodward defeated us by a score of 35 to 27, this could not completely remove our joy of the previous victory.

CHAPTER IV—THE BEST OF FOUR YEARS

With Bruce Bashore, president; Donna Walker, vice-president; Carmen Gerig, secretary-treasurer; and Eugene Sund, sergeant-at-arms, how could our Senior Year be anything but the best of the four!

For the first time in many years, the Libbey Cowboys participated in out-of-town games. The most unusual and enjoyable was the game at Mishawaka. It seems that somewhere along the way, the band found a new Drum Major. "Does that Clown always march with your band?" was the query of Mishawaka. Defeat of so-called undefeatable Waite, fulfilled the fondest hopes of Libbey Seniors for a City Championship team. The Cowboy Round-up and presentation of the football trophies to such highly valued players as Bob Ratajczak, Jerry Manz, Bob Keholm, Joe Taberner, and Ted Bey, were fitting memorials to a valiant and hard fighting team.

What better proof could be given of the acting ability of our class than the Senior Play "The Adorable Spendthrift", produced by Miss Costigan. Other outstanding events were the magazine sale, the proceeds of which are to provide for a Libbey servicemen's Gold Star Memorial; the raffle of the "Story-book Dolls", and the Dr. Williams door-prize show. The changing of the Friendship Club's name to the "Y-Teens", the personal visit of Principal Harold Williams to Libbey, enjoyed by everyone, and the Non-Sectarian Lenten Services sponsored by the Senior Y-Teens and Senior Hi-Y, were also highlights of the year. As a climax the Junior Senior Prom was held at the Trianon Ballroom on April 11, under the guidance of a capable committee, headed by Jim Fenner. Of the many social events during a Senior's year, the Senior Banquet is unquestionably the most important. This was held at the Masonic Temple, from which, as is the custom, the members of the class returned to Libbey to receive the "Edelian" and to attend the dance.

An impressive Baccalaureate Service was held in the Libbey auditorium on Sunday evening, June 8. However, the culmination of all the cherished hopes of our class was realized at Commencement on June 11, when we received our diplomas. The speaker of the evening was Mr. Kenneth McFarland, Superintendent of Schools at Topeka, Kansas.

Members of the 1947 Graduating Class, may your individual achievements in your future life continue to be as meritorious as were your scholastic attainments at Libbey.

"The Edelians are here! All freshmen, sophomores, and juniors line up outside 109 in alphabetical order," says Mr. Rusie over the loud speaker. That speech is a sign for the underclassmen to get their yearbooks after watching enviously the seniors who received theirs at the senior banquet.

The Edelian comes out every year accompanied by hard work in 244, mad dashes to the printers' and engravers', and snapshots being taken all over the building. From the first day of photographing class pictures to the day when pages are autographed everyone waits expectantly to find out the cover design and color, the dedication, and the general lay-out of the Edelian. Credit for this splendid publication goes most of all to Miss Dusha, adviser. The student directors were Pat Foley and Joyce Roper, co-editors-in-chief; Catherine Frazier, Carmen Gerig, and Mary Hirschy, senior editors; Lois Fralich and Joyce Allison, class editors. The faculty section was managed by Barbara Frank and Carolyn Fuerst. Wilma Kiel, Marilyn Arner, and Donna Walker arranged the club section and JoAnne Pete and Alcena Wittenberg assembled the snapshots. The sports were taken care of by Annette Black and Bill Weit. Joan Blankenhagen and Doris Hubaker spent much time as typists.

Mr. Martin and his assistants, Doris Stone, advertising manager and Helen Ellerman, circulation manager were in charge of financial arrangements. This staff supervised distribution, obtained ads, and took subscriptions. Mr. Rusie was always willing to aid both groups so that our Edelian may remain one of the best yearbooks in the country.

CRYSTAL

"Oh, my name's in the Crystal!" Every boy and girl in Libbey likes to see his or her name in print, especially if it's in the school newspaper, the Crystal. There the latest news, gossip, reviews, editorials, and snapshots may be found.

Pat Findley and Johnny Waller, co-editors-in-chief, were constantly on the search to give this publication sparkle and freshness. With the help of Nina Wittich, assistant editor, Peggy Eichelberger, art editor, and the rest of the staff, the Crystal has come out ten times during the year. The staff was always ready with pencil and paper to take notes of events, especially those in the auditorium where awards are given and variety shows made. One of the most amusing columns is Libbey Lou, who confides in her diary the secrets of Libbey.

The reporters have all had at least one year of journalism. Many are planning to continue newspaper work after graduation. Every year the staff is honored by a banquet. This year it was held at the Tallyho on May 1. To produce a school paper, it is not only necessary to have the members of the staff working together, but there is a great need for supervision. The exceedingly helpful advisers for the past year were Miss Florence Gerdes, literary adviser; Miss Gertrude Payne, snapshot adviser; Mrs. Mary Houser, typing adviser; Miss Hazel Bartley, art adviser and Mr. Charles Martin, finances.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The highest possible achievement that may come to any high school student is that of being selected to become a member of the National Honor Society. Indeed, many a proud and joyous look was seen in the eyes of those who were inducted one day in early March. Being permitted to wear the emblem of the society, the flaming torch and keystone, means that one is a leader and is required to bear the torch of knowledge and spread its light whenever possible and wherever needed.

Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service—these are the requirements on which the selection is based. Juniors who rank in the upper fifteenth of their class are considered eligible to membership. Seniors, however, ranking in the upper third of their class are voted on individually by the faculty, who bear in mind the other significant virtues previously mentioned. Therefore, the finest and most outstanding students are recognized. In addition to the privilege of wearing the National Honor pin, a member is also entitled to the society's membership card, which is recognized as a permanent hall permit.

Holding the supreme office of president of this society denoting high scholarship, was Rose Van Dorp, so well known for her pleasing personality, superior ability, and outstanding leadership. Other officers were Johnny Waller, vice-president, and Lois Fralich, secretary-treasurer. This group was ably guided in all of its activity by Mr. Walter Lynn.

In addition to the induction ceremony, many of the members took part in the various scholarship tests offered. They also served the school by conducting the junior and senior class officer elections, and the Student Council election. A variety show in May was presented for the purpose of raising funds for scholarships which were given to deserving people at graduation. The juniors aid the school by ushering at the baccalaureate service and Commencement. Finally the seniors of this organization are permitted to be seated on the platform on Commencement night—a time when all look back on the honorable traditions of Libbey High School.

PERICLEAN LITERARY SOCIETY

Nulli Secundus! Second to none! The Peries! And their program? Two of the outstanding events of the year were the mass-meeting and the dance. Annette Black and her committee planned "The Holly Daze", held at Calumet Temple, which was as joyful as the holiday season. Traditionally, before the DeVilbiss-Libbey Thanksgiving football game, the Peries staged an enthusiasm-filled mass meeting. The curtains opened to show a stadium; this "theme" gave a chance for more emphasis on the players themselves. One of the main activities of any club is to take in new members. From the time bids were given out, through initiation, to the tea given in their honor in the library, the pledges were finding out how much fun it is to be a Peri.

The literary program this year consisted of talks on the best plays and movies of last year. Lois Fralich, president, took charge of meetings and those assisting her were Annette Black, vice-president; Joyce Roper, treasurer; JoAnne Pete, censor; Dawn Voelzow, recording secretary; Shirley Willyard, corresponding secretary; and Barbara Frank, chaplain. Two May time parties were given, one in honor of the mothers; the other, for the seniors. At the first, the mothers came to the library for a lovely tea and program planned by the tea committee, headed by Mary Collins. The second was the annual senior banquet at the Hillcrest, where the new officers were installed, gifts presented, and thanks given to Miss Dusha for being such a wonderful adviser. It was with a feeling of sadness that the senior Peries accepted the lockets, for this gift meant the end of a high school career and active membership in a wonderful society.

PHILALETHEAN LITERARY SOCIETY

Another year of success with perfection! And to prove their point, you should have taken note of their treasury in January after their annual dance, the "Snow Ball". Much of the credit is due to Sheldon Baldwin and her energetic committee, though every Phil conscientiously worked to bring the much needed relaxation after exams. A whirl of social events began in October with a roast for the girls and their dates at Pearson Park. The mass-meeting, dreamed up by Marilyn Arner and her committee, brought our players to a smashing victory over Waite. Soon after the girls began sporting their distinctive sweaters. The dance was complimented with several activities including a Christmas party planned by the pledges, and tea on Valentine's Day when the mothers and teachers were honored, the selling of poetry books, and picnic in May to reward the girls for their work on the dance. A culmination of the year's work was the annual spring banquet, at which time the pledges were formally initiated, the new officers were installed, and the seniors were especially honored. In promoting the cultural interests of the girls, the motto, "Literature is the garden of wisdom," well stands for the literary programs, since each month a discussion on the topic "In Preparation for College" was held. The final contribution of the Philalethean Literary Society was the scholarship that was offered to an outstanding senior Phil.

The counsel of Miss Gerdes and Miss Allen was highly valued, as well as the competent leadership of Donna Walker, president; Sheldon Baldwin, vice-president; Phyllis Ferguson, corresponding secretary; Pat Findley, recording secretary; Sylvia Bowes, treasurer; Clydabelle Padgett, chaplain; Joan Bache, senior censor; and Fran Harris, junior censor.

ZETALETHEAN LITERARY SOCIETY

As the year came to a close, the Zets were proud indeed of their achievements. It has always been the aim of the Zetalethean Literary Society to take part in anything that is worthwhile, whether it be social, literary, or beneficial to the society itself. The literary programs, "Friendship Forever," inspired the girls to try to develop a better feeling of friendship and co-operation among the members. Of great service to the senior class were the Zets when they proceeded to take orders for and distribute the name cards used in the senior announcements.

The social events of the year were keenly enjoyed. The roast at Fort Meigs in November was a gay affair, as was "The Raindrop Hop," held at Trilby Log Cabin, which proved once again that the dance is always one of the most outstanding events of the year. The tea honoring the mothers and the teachers was held later. To close the round of activities came the senior farewell banquet, when the pledges were formally initiated. This is a time when the senior girls recalled the many happy memories of the past few years. Directing the Zet's functions were: Virginia Cox, president; Shirley Butler, vice-president; Bette Callahan, recording secretary; Luck Cremean, treasurer; Rose Van Dorp, historian; Lois Kachenmeister, censor; and Nancy Shoemaker, chaplain. Miss Murbach replaced Miss Henderson on leave. The other capable advisers were Miss DeLisle and Miss Eberth.

QUILL AND DAGGER LITERARY SOCIETY

The Quill and Dagger Literary Society, the Q.D.'s to you and me, through the medium of its high standards and all-round popularity, has continued to be one of the leading societies in Libbey High School. The officers of the club have proved very helpful in carrying out this year's program of activities, and each of them has performed his duties very efficiently. The cabinet included Joe Taberner, president; Jim Fenner, vice-president; Dave Strance, secretary; Bill Trost, treasurer; and Owen Lowe, sergeant-at-arms.

The activities of the society were many and varied. In the literary field group discussions of present day problems and past high school situations were held. Future plans for college and preparations for employment were made. Socially, the year was spiced with numerous events. The annual "Shindig" was held at Calumet Temple, March 15. Countless couples danced to the tuneful strains of Dave Nichol's music, and were delighted with the prizes found in the balloons during the intermission. Jim Fenner and his committee are to be commended for the dance's success. A picnic at Pearson Park in May, and the Senior Farewell Banquet held at the Maumee River Yacht Club May 31, completed the year's activities. During the year two groups of pledges, who proved to be of the right calibre to work well with the active members, were duly initiated. The distinctions of the club have been as brilliant as their activities. By means of their orange and black sweaters, the traditional distinction, the Q.D.'s have added much color to our Libbey halls. Much of the group's success can be accredited to their adviser, Mr. Charles Robinson, and his understanding co-operation, as well as friendly supervision.

FORUM LITERARY SOCIETY - - SENIOR HI-Y

The Forum and the Senior Hi-Y have always stood for the highest standards in the school, and the names of the school leaders have been numerous on their rolls. The purpose of the Forum, "to promote good fellowship, consideration of others, value of cooperation, and a commendable school spirit," was carried out by Don Ramsey, president; Bob Noethan, vice-president; Russ Crossman, secretary; Larry Swartz, treasurer; and Max Save, sergeant-at-arms. The society began its program with a "rip-roaring" mass-meeting. A dance was also held in the gym. The "Forum A.A." sponsored a boxing-match with the Q.D.'s. A dance in May was tops in dancing pleasure, thanks to Bob Noethan and his committee. A roast was held in the spring, as was the customary banquet. The fellows are grateful to their adviser, Mr. Vander.

When September came the Libbey Hi-Y Clubs were ready for action. The purpose of the club, "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of living," was achieved in their program of activities for the year. When a boy has accepted the ideals of clean scholarship, he is then ready to undertake the responsibilities of Hi-Y membership. The senior club sets the pace for the Hi-Y at Libbey, and leading them were Bruce Bashore, president; Jim Fenner, vice-president; Jim Aufderheide, secretary-treasurer; Harold Clark, chaplain; and Don Ramsey, sergeant-at-arms. Without the guidance of Mr. Kiefer, Mr. Vander, and Mr. Ivan Smith, the club surely could not have functioned.

JUNIOR HI-Y - - SOPHOMORE HI-Y

Collaborating at all times with their senior colleagues, the Junior and Sophomore Hi-Y boys took an active part in all the serviceable and social activities planned. Included among the serviceable activities was the washing of the school stage and the oiling of all the seats in the auditorium. Then fulfilling the desire to replenish the treasury, the Hi-Y clubs maintained a refreshment stand on the train to the football game in Indiana. The clubs planned a splash party for the Y-Teens at the YMCA in November and participated in the annual February Forums at the "Y". To conclude the year's work the annual banquet honoring the mothers of the members was planned in May. At the bi-monthly meetings, the four divisions of Hi-Y were able to enjoy the programs and to do some serious thinking. Among the speakers were Lieutenant-Colonel John Brown, Toledo's most decorated soldier; Karl Bruno, who showed the club motion pictures of the Holy Land; a representative of the Bell Telephone Company; and the Reverend Lamb, of the Toledo Council of Churches.

FRESHMEN HI-Y

The newest organization in Libbey High School is the Freshman Hi-Y Club. This group is not only the newest but it also has the youngest boys in the school as its members. Any ninth grade boy with a "C plus" average or better was invited, in January, to join the club by the older Hi-Y members. Fifty-eight fellows accepted the membership and pledged themselves to live up to the traditions of such an extraordinary organization. Soon afterwards the boys elected the following to be their leaders: Jim Findley, president; Paul Baldwin, vice-president; Bob Cremean, secretary-treasurer; Bob Houser, chaplain; and Dick Cheney, sergeant-at-arms.

As a club with a bright future, the freshmen lads were more than eager to follow through in their responsibilities to make their club outstanding as the Hi-Y Clubs are and always have been. They took part in the annual Hi-Y banquet in May; and to acquaint the boys with one another they held a potluck supper and swim at the "Y" on April 19. This organization would never have been able to get under way if it had not been for the exceptional guidance of the advisers, Mr. Kiefer and Robert Jorris, who was recently discharged from our armed forces. The promise of a fine club of men can easily be seen in such ambitious, young fellows; and they will surely carry through the fine traditions advanced by the older members of the past years.

SENIOR Y-TEENS

During the year a national vote was given to change the name Friendship Clubs to Y-TEENS. Under the capable leadership of Miss Ruth Allen, the club did their new name justice. The officers in charge were Mary Hirschy, president; Pat Cairl, vice-president; Corlene Bohnert, recording secretary; Shirley Smith, corresponding secretary; Catherine Frazier, treasurer; and Delora Peoples, chaplain.

The girls started the year with a salt sale, and a book review by Mrs. Amos Conn on "My Chinese Wife". In December they held their annual football banquet in honor of the varsity team and their parents. Later the girls met at the YWCA for a sewing party and dinner. During the building fund campaign for a new YWCA, the club gave a total of one hundred and sixty dollars. As usual it was the Senior Y-Teens who were responsible for the purchasing and decorating of the lovely tree seen in the Libbey lobby before Christmas. Continuing to augment their treasury, the girls variously sold salt, popcorn balls, and mistletoe, and they also promoted a dance following the Libbey-DeVilbiss basketball game. Socially, they entertained their mothers and the faculty at a tea; and the members themselves later enjoyed a breakfast and a banquet. Participating in planning the traditional Lenten services, as well as being actively a part of the Y-Teen ceremony at the YMCA, the girls added much to their credit.

JUNIOR Y-TEENS

With the motto "To find and give the best" the Junior Y-Teens, under the direction of Miss Grace Irwin, adviser; Beryle Dunlap, president; Phyllis Martin, vice-president; Kathryn Parlette, recording secretary; Barbara Emerson, corresponding secretary; Betty Howard, treasurer; and Lois Ann Eden, chaplain, had a fine year. The club offered to the junior girls an opportunity to become better acquainted with each other and exchange viewpoints.

Each Friday afternoon throughout the year two girls went to the Lutheran Neighborhood House to help entertain the children. Not only did this benefit the children, but it also gave the girls many enjoyable experiences. Also in the line of service, the Junior Y-Teens, along with the other two Y-Teen Clubs and three Hi-Y Clubs, contributed to the YWCA building fund. The club programs for the year were very entertaining as well as educational, and upon a wide variety of subjects. To start with Miss Russell gave a talk on Mexico. Mrs. Shell, who is well known to all the girls connected with the YWCA, led the girls in a musical program of group singing. At Christmas time they had a religious service at which Father O'Grady delivered the message. This was a very inspirational service and was beneficial to all those who attended. In the merry spirit of the holiday season, a party was held in Miss Irwin's room just before vacation. Later to raise funds, the girls gave a successful potatoe chip sale. The year was concluded with the annual banquet in the school cafeteria, which gave the girls an opportunity of looking back on a very eventful and entertaining year.

SOPHOMORE Y-TEENS

Handicapped by a late start, the Sophomore Y-Teens have nevertheless shown their strength at Libbey. It is not until their Sophomore year that girls are given an opportunity to join a club of this type, and many turned out with enthusiasm when Mrs. Pauline Black, the adviser, called the first meeting. Yes, it was the many hours of hard work put into the organization of the club by Mrs. Black that made it a success. The newly elected cabinet for the year consisted of Alice White, president; Shirley Schnell, vice-president; Mary Laub, recording secretary; Dorothy Powers, corresponding secretary; Nancy Huke, treasurer; and Phyllis Chamberlain, chaplain.

Soon after the club was formed, Miss Louise Jones of the YWCA, talked to the girls concerning their duties as Y-Teens members. A few of the duties which are familiar to all Y-Teens are consideration of others, helping others, and following the golden rule in general. Christmas caroling is always enjoyed by everyone, especially the sophomore girls. They proved this by caroling at the William Roche Hospital for the patients suffering with tuberculosis, and also at Mercy Hospital for the benefit of Mr. Williams, our principal. The annual banquet held by the three Y-Teen Clubs at Libbey in the school cafeteria, brought the short but eventful year of the Sophomore Y-Teens to a close.

GERMAN CLUB - - SPANISH CLUB

The study of a foreign language has greatly enriched many of the students in Libbey. The purpose of the German and Spanish Clubs is to create and increase an interest in their respective languages. The student who chose to study German had an interesting time by taking part in the programs of the German Club. All of these, which consisted of games and songs, were done entirely in German. A visit to the Art Museum was made to study some of the many German exhibitions which were on display there. The social event of the year was a Christmas party. Leading the members of the club in their activities were Louise Hoecherl, president; Carol Kunstbeck, vice-president; Virginia Cleary, secretary; and Eileen Margraf, treasurer. The year could not have been a success without the supervision of the efficient and capable adviser, Miss Alma Lok.

One of the most active study organizations in the school, the Spanish Club, endeavored to better acquaint its members with the Spanish speaking countries. The study of our good neighbors to the south was achieved by oral reports of their customs, by singing Spanish folk songs and by presenting plays. The social events included an autumn roast at Walbridge Park with Diana Pencheff as chairman of the committee and at Christmas time a highly successful party under the direction of Nancy Thull at the Y.W.C.A. This fine year could not have been accomplished without the cabinet consisting of Dick Goodwin, president; Diana Pencheff, vice-president; Marjorie Leitner, secretary; and Donna Huff, treasurer. Helpful supervision was given by the advisers, Miss Russell and Miss Coehrs.

FRENCH CLUB - - CLASSICAL HONOR SOCIETY

"Au coeur vaillant rien impossible!" Nothing is impossible to the valiant heart—at least nothing is impossible to the energetic French Club members. The purpose of the club, "to promote interest in the study of the French language and of French civilization in order to promote a better understanding of our foreign allies", was carried out to the "nth" degree by the cabinet, composed of Alice Ingle, president; Barbara Haye, vice-president; Marilynn Arner, secretary; Janet Seeman, treasurer; and Lucille Zinser, Ruth Morris, and Paulyne Morgan, censors. During the year, members of the club collected money and tax stamps for French Relief; corresponded with French students; held sales to make money; and attended the annual French Club Banquet in May. The club's adviser, Miss Krueger, was ideal in helping the members carry out their activities.

One of Libbey's newest organizations is the Classical Honor Society, a society formed to stimulate scholarship and interest in the classics. Under the leadership of the advisers, Mrs. Pauline Burton and Miss Eberth, and the cabinet: Marilyn Bracht, president; Agatha Bruno, vice-president; and John Waller, secretary-treasurer, they have done much to promote the study of Latin and Ancient History. This society awards at commencement the Eta Sigma Phi medal, a national collegiate honorary Latin fraternity medal. They also give a trophy based upon four years study of Latin, excellent general scholarship, and service to the school. The social event highlighting the year was a Roman Banquet held in April of which Lucy Cremean was general chairman.

STUDENT COUNCIL - - LIB

Enthusiasm characterizes these worthwhile organizations. The Lib, our school magazine, provides a means of enjoyment for students and also an outlet for the artistic and literary abilities of the members. Published twice a year, this magazine is done entirely by the staff. The work includes gathering material, art work, stenciling, mimeographing, and distributing. The group's annual banquet was held in the spring and a roast was also enjoyed. The past year Tom Lasko and Bob Adams were co-editors, and Frank Gwodz, assistant editor. The publication was supervised by Miss Bartley.

The Student Council is a governing body in Libbey. The cabinet consisted of Sheldon Baldwin, president; Eugene Sund, vice-president; and Marilyn Collins, secretary-treasurer. Thanks to the sagacity of the advisers, Mr. Lynn, Miss Allen, Miss Dusha, and Mr. Mortimer, the council has maintained a high degree of efficiency and has completed a successful year. The pupils supported these representatives by coming to a dance held in the gymnasium after the Libbey-Central football game. In addition to their sixth hour meetings, the group attended the Toledo District Student Council meetings, of which Sheldon Baldwin was secretary. Some of the problems the council tried to remedy this year were the unnecessary noise in the auditorium and the uncleanness of the cafeteria. Then, too, they sponsored a magazine drive for a Memorial Fund in December. All in all, the Student Council functioned smoothly and lead their classmates well.

ACTIVITIES - - DEANS' AIDES

The Activities Department and the Deans' Aides are the efficiency groups of the school. Who could forget all the things these two clubs have done to aid Libbey? The Activities Department has sold tickets throughout the year; they have assisted the Edelian Class by advertising the yearbook; and they have also aided many school organizations by doing mimeographing work for them. All this work has been ably guided by their adviser, Mr. Charles Roscoe Martin, who claims that the sole purpose of the department is to "dispense joy"! He was capably assisted in this job of fulfilling the purpose of the club by the vice-presidents under him, who were Doris Stone, Mary Helen Seideman, Helen Ellerman, Pat Cairl, Shirley Jay, Ruth LaBeau, Ruth Reichardt, Betty Howard, and Phyllis Martin.

The Deans' Aides have done a great deal to maintain order in the Deans' office. These girls, who are chosen by Miss Brown and Mr. Osgood, help the deans in taking attendance, filing the excuses, and checking the absences. The girls not only have to maintain a certain scholastic morale, but they also have to be willing to be of assistance whenever possible. It can be said that their work is never done, for they are always busy doing some useful service. At the end of the school year they held their annual out-doors picnic. We of Libbey High School think that many laurels should be presented to these two worthwhile groups.

BIOLOGY CLUB

Bugs don't frighten these biology students, who like such things so well that they have a club to further the study of such specimens. Planning a program which would act as a stimulus to the nature-loving-longings and scientific instincts of the members, the cabinet: Tom Rigney, president; Jennie Huls, vice-president; Mary Jane Hess, secretary; and William Harris, treasurer, arranged many interesting activities. The success of their plans is partly due to the friendly supervision of their advisers, Miss Fieldler and Miss Pickard.

Part of the instructive object of the club, which is affiliated with the Science Clubs of America, is to co-operate with the Westinghouse Foundation in its search for science talent. Four Libbey students entered the contest this year. Interesting programs of biological nature were presented by different members of the club; and at one of the meetings, Miss Pickard showed some of her own movies on Florida plant life. The social activities began with their annual picnic and initiation of new members at Walbridge Park in October. Later, during the holiday season, all the members thoroughly enjoyed their Christmas party. In February the club presented a dance, "The Cherry Caper", after the Woodward-Libbey basketball game. A banquet in the spring ended the club's program for the year.

ENGINEERS - - ARCHITECTS

The two industrial arts organizations in Libbey High School are the energetic Engineering and Architectural Societies. Again the Engineers have had their usual successful club and have participated in many activities. This has been greatly due to its competent officers, who were Robert Verdon, president; Bernard Thobe, vice-president; Ford Cauffiel, secretary; and Kenneth Kramp, treasurer. Mr. Sterling advised the club. The Engineers had a party at school in May, and during the year they have gone to expositions and lectures at Toledo University and Macomber Vocational High School. At various meetings throughout the year, selected members of the club presented talks about the different fields of engineering. The Engineering Society has earned a permanent place among the organizations of Libbey High School. Lower classmen who would find an interest in this society will be wise to do their part in perpetuating its existence.

"We're back again!" is what the Architects were crying this year, after they held their first initiation in November. As in previous years, the purpose of the club is "to improve the appreciation of architecture in practice and in theory." This was sufficiently carried out with Mr. Packer, as adviser, and Lauren Reed, president; Brian Bennet, vice-president; Steve Tryc, secretary; Donald White, treasurer; and Bob Noethan, sergeant-at-arms. The club has done a fine job this year, and we hope that after the renewed start they can do good things for Libbey.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

Enthusiastic, fun-loving, and energetic are the members of the Commercial Club. The purpose of the club, which is to increase knowledge of the business world through talks and excursions, was kept in mind throughout the entire year. A trip to Eriksen's was planned for the members and pledges so that filing might be taught to those who desired this knowledge. But the Commercial Club did not believe in all work and no play. The year began with a roast at Side-Cut Park, with Pat Cothorn acting as chairman. The next event was the annual Christmas Party, which was held in Catherine Boyer's home. Following these activities was the Mother's Tea on February 12, with Doris Stone as chairman of the committee. Carol Spangler handled the planning of the Spring Card Party at the Walbridge Park shelter house; but topping all social events of the year was the formal banquet on May 9, under the direction of Edna Strong.

A lot of credit is due to the capable advisers, Mrs. Houser and Mrs. Flatz. The officers who were Wilma Keil, president; Edna Strong, vice-president; Doris Hubaker, secretary; Doris Stone, treasurer; and Catherine Boyer, reporter, chalked up another year of creditable performance. The motto of the club is "A closer co-operation with business and business practices." This was certainly carried out well and Libbey High School can well be proud of such an organization.

PROJECTION CLUB - - HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

Two ambitious clubs at Libbey this year were the Projection Club and the Home Economics Club. To further visual education for the school is the purpose of the first. Through the films that are shown by the Projection Club, the pupils gain a better knowledge of the subjects they are studying. Among their social activities this year was a skating party at the Rollercoade. On November 20, the club held an initiation and roast at Walbridge Park. In March, a movie was given for the school. The officers for this year were Georgia Hite, president; Dave Kaczala, vice-president; Donald Gwinner, secretary; Elizabeth Lantz, treasurer; and Alfred Hattery, sergeant-at-arms. Mr. Lincke is the adviser.

In the effort to train young women to be efficient leaders in the home and the community, the Home Economics Club has functioned very well under the able advisership of Miss Murbach, Miss Owen, and Miss Boochs. Members listened to educational records on "Careers in Home Economics", which were played by the courtesy of Miss Betty Newton of the Gas Company. Socially, the year began with a get-acquainted roast at Walbridge Park. Later in December the Christmas Party was held. The two most important events of the year followed next, the Mother's Tea which was held on March 12, and the Annual Banquet. The officers were Dolores Bunck, president; Donna Wingert, vice-president; Florince Barlow, secretary; Mary Alice Wenzel, treasurer; and Virginia Becker, reporter.

CHOIR

For all those who love to sing, the Libbey Choir offers a splendid opportunity. Music has always been a source of enjoyment and pleasure, not only to those participating, but also to those listening. This year, the Libbey Choir indeed deserved a vote of praise; for under the efficient leadership of Mr. Harold McClure, the choir had a busy and prosperous season. The capable officers elected were Dave Strance, president; Virginia Cox, vice-president; Vivian Schwind, treasurer; and Bob Keholm, sergeant-at-arms.

At various times throughout the year, the choir presented programs at many junior high and elementary schools. At Christmas several members voluntarily sang in the "Passion Play." The group also sang at the religious service given at Libbey the day before Christmas vacation. Concerts were given at B. R. Baker's and the Exchange Club during the holidays. At the Lenten Services in the spring, the Choir added much color as well as beautiful music. Two radio broadcasts gave the Choir much experience. Exchange concerts with Woodward and Scott were held in the spring, along with the annual concert for the Libbey student body. In April, a choir contest was held in Bluffton, Ohio, in which our Libbey Choir took an enthusiastic part. A Choral Festival was held in the Art Museum Peristyle for all of the Toledo High School Choirs. This brought a beautiful and inspiring close to the many hours of service which the members had contributed to the cultural life of our school and our city.

Color, enthusiasm, gaiety, and excitement! What words could better describe our own band? With six snappy majorettes, Vivian Schwind, Marilyn Arner, Nancy Strang, Barbara Emerson, Marion Pindoley, and Carol Eschedor, as advance guards, the band displayed color as well as talent on our field. Marilyn Arner has served as captain of the majorette squad for the past two seasons. Under the guidance of the agile drum major, Jack Mehlman, they have put much "pep" into our championship football games and excellent mass meetings. For this year's games, our majorettes have had bright new uniforms. The jackets are a very perky yellow trimmed in blue braid, and the skirts are blue with yellow on the underside. Being on hand for all of our games is not the only activity of the band. This year they made the trip to Mishawaka, Indiana, along with the students and the team, to play for those who attended the out-of-state game. They gave a concert for the South Side Chamber of Commerce; they marched in several parades throughout the year; they presented concerts in many of the city's grade schools and in our own school; and, in June, several selected members of our band played with the All-City Band in a concert held in the Zoo Amphitheater.

The instruction obtained by membership in the band has proved invaluable to the interested students who studied well-known operas, overtures, and marches during the year. Thus, through the wise direction of Mr. Harold McClure, the band has developed a better appreciation of music.

DRAMATIC CLUB

"The show must go on!" Yes, whenever one of the properties is misplaced at the last minute, or one of the cast forgets his lines, or some of the other unforeseen catastrophes occur, a cry can be heard from the members of the Dramatic Club, but the show still goes on. In promoting the interest of its members in the dramatic art, several stage productions were brought forth during the year. First, the one-act plays, "The Mad Hatter" and "Poor, Dear, Aunt Maria," were presented to the student body in October. Then, the senior class came through with their annual play, "The Adorable Spendthrift," that kept the audience in suspense for two full hours. Not to be outdone by the seniors, the juniors offered "New Fires" which was done equally as well as the senior play. Next on the club's program of work came the presentation in April of two more one-act plays.

The group also made an excursion to Bowling Green State University to observe and study some of their productions. The instructions and comments given by Miss Costigan, the adviser, were valued highly by the members and the student body. The group officers, Jack Bernard, president; Jackie Dankert, vice-president; Lois Leffel, corresponding secretary; Shirley Jay, recording secretary; and Agatha Bruno, treasurer, were able to lead the industrious group in many entertaining activities. The club once again closed the season with their annual banquet in May.

DEBATE CLUB - - RED CROSS COUNCIL

Without a doubt the most rapidly growing organizations in Libbey High School, are the Debate Club and the Junior Red Cross Society. The latter has been living up to their lasting pledge, "We believe in service for others, in health of mind and body to fit us for better service; and in worldwide friendship." Money and articles were collected to fill educational gift boxes for needy European children, and also for the C.A.R.E. boxes that were sent to Greece, Italy, Poland, Holland, and Finland. For the hospitals and needy of Toledo the club prepared many interesting gifts. Leading the group has been Miss May and a splendid cabinet, consisting of Lois Kachenmeister, president; Betty Holtgrieve, vice-president; and Donna Peterson, secretary-treasurer.

On its second year of existence, the Debate Club is achieving its purpose to promote debate and round-table discussions. Under the excellent supervision of the adviser, Mr. Baker, and the officers: Ray Knerr, president; Jerry Canty, vice-president; Mary Lou Bellingham, secretary; and Mary Dame, treasurer, the interest of the club's small membership was stimulated by many debates. The topics of some of these were, "Can Toledo Curb Juvenile Delinquency?", "Socialized Medicine," and "Is Russia Ready to Co-operate for World Peace?" At Christmas time a party was held in the home of Mary Lou Bellingham. Avis Weaver and Mary Jane Hess were in charge of the arrangements and all the members were happily entertained.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The unusual factor about the meetings of the Girls' Athletic Association is that you can always find the members in action. Instead of sitting down, listening to reports and the usual parliamentary procedure, every Monday afternoon these healthy girls can be seen shooting for a basket, hitting a "homer", or perfecting their skill in some other worthwhile sport. Throughout the year basketball, volleyball, and softball tournaments are held. Between the sunshine and the showers of the spring the girls played softball on the practice field. Leading the Girls' Athletic Association through a year of varied activity were Virginia Jones, president; Anne Miller, vice-president; Bernadine Krall, secretary; and Doris Harris, treasurer. Of course, the organization would not be complete without advisers, teachers, timekeepers, referees, score-keepers, and coaches. All these positions were filled most generously by the appreciated Miss Maher, Miss Myers, and Mrs. Upp.

In the spring the Girls' Athletic Association sent representatives to the field days held at Bowling Green State University, Ypsilanti, and Toledo University where they made a fine showing of their activities for Libbey High School. The year was concluded with a roast at Walbridge Park. In participating in the various sports the girls fully realized the purpose for which the organization was formed: that of creating good sportsmanship, leadership, and high ideals of healthful living.

CHESS CLUB

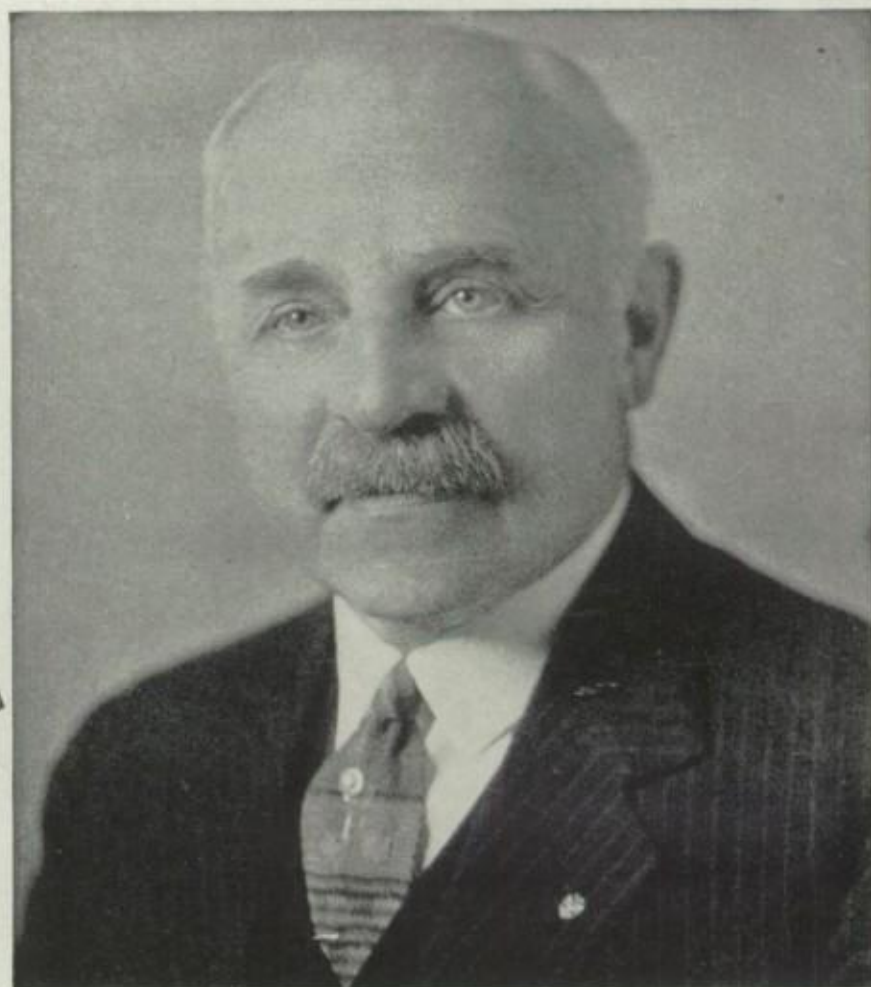

Relaxation and co-operation! The members of this club have learned the sport of competition. Chess, once known as "checkers", is a game played with certain "pieces" on a special board. It takes its name from the Persian word "Shah", a king, the name of one of the pieces of men used in the game. Chess is one of the most cosmopolitan of all games, invented in the East, introduced into the West, and now domiciled in every part of the world, as a mere pastime. The game is easily learned, and a very moderate amount of study enables a person to be a fair player, but the higher ranges of chess-skill are attained only by persistent labor.

Social events have been eliminated in the Chess Club this year so that these energetic students of Libbey may learn a better technique in playing this difficult game. A tournament was held the latter half of the year among the members of the organization, and then the winners participated in a tournament with the students of the Chess Clubs of Scott and DeVilbiss. An attempt is being made to have regular chess leagues in all of the city's high schools, and Libbey will certainly be represented well when such plans are completed. Mr. Lynn not only advised this group, but he also encouraged the boys to develop skill and more mental activity. The officers for this year were Dick Dunham, president; Bob Gillette, vice-president; Don Rein, secretary-treasurer; and Bill Gillette and Bill Bliss, guardians of the chess sets.

With pride and gratitude Libbey again salutes its patron, Dr. Charles H. Williams. His constant friendship and generosity to our school is a source of inspiration and delight to all of us. His gifts of trophy awards to outstanding athletes and to the outstanding senior girl and boy are fine morale builders, stimulating all to higher achievements. Our entertainment and pleasure derived from the annual Door Prize Show resulted from the gifts presented by Dr. Williams. For him our constant wish is joy and happiness.

The coveted Dr. William's Trophies provoke smiles from Ted Bey, Bob Keholm, Bob Ratajczak, Jerry Manz, and Joe Taberner!

MR. HARDING

Rubelle knocks down a Woodward pass!

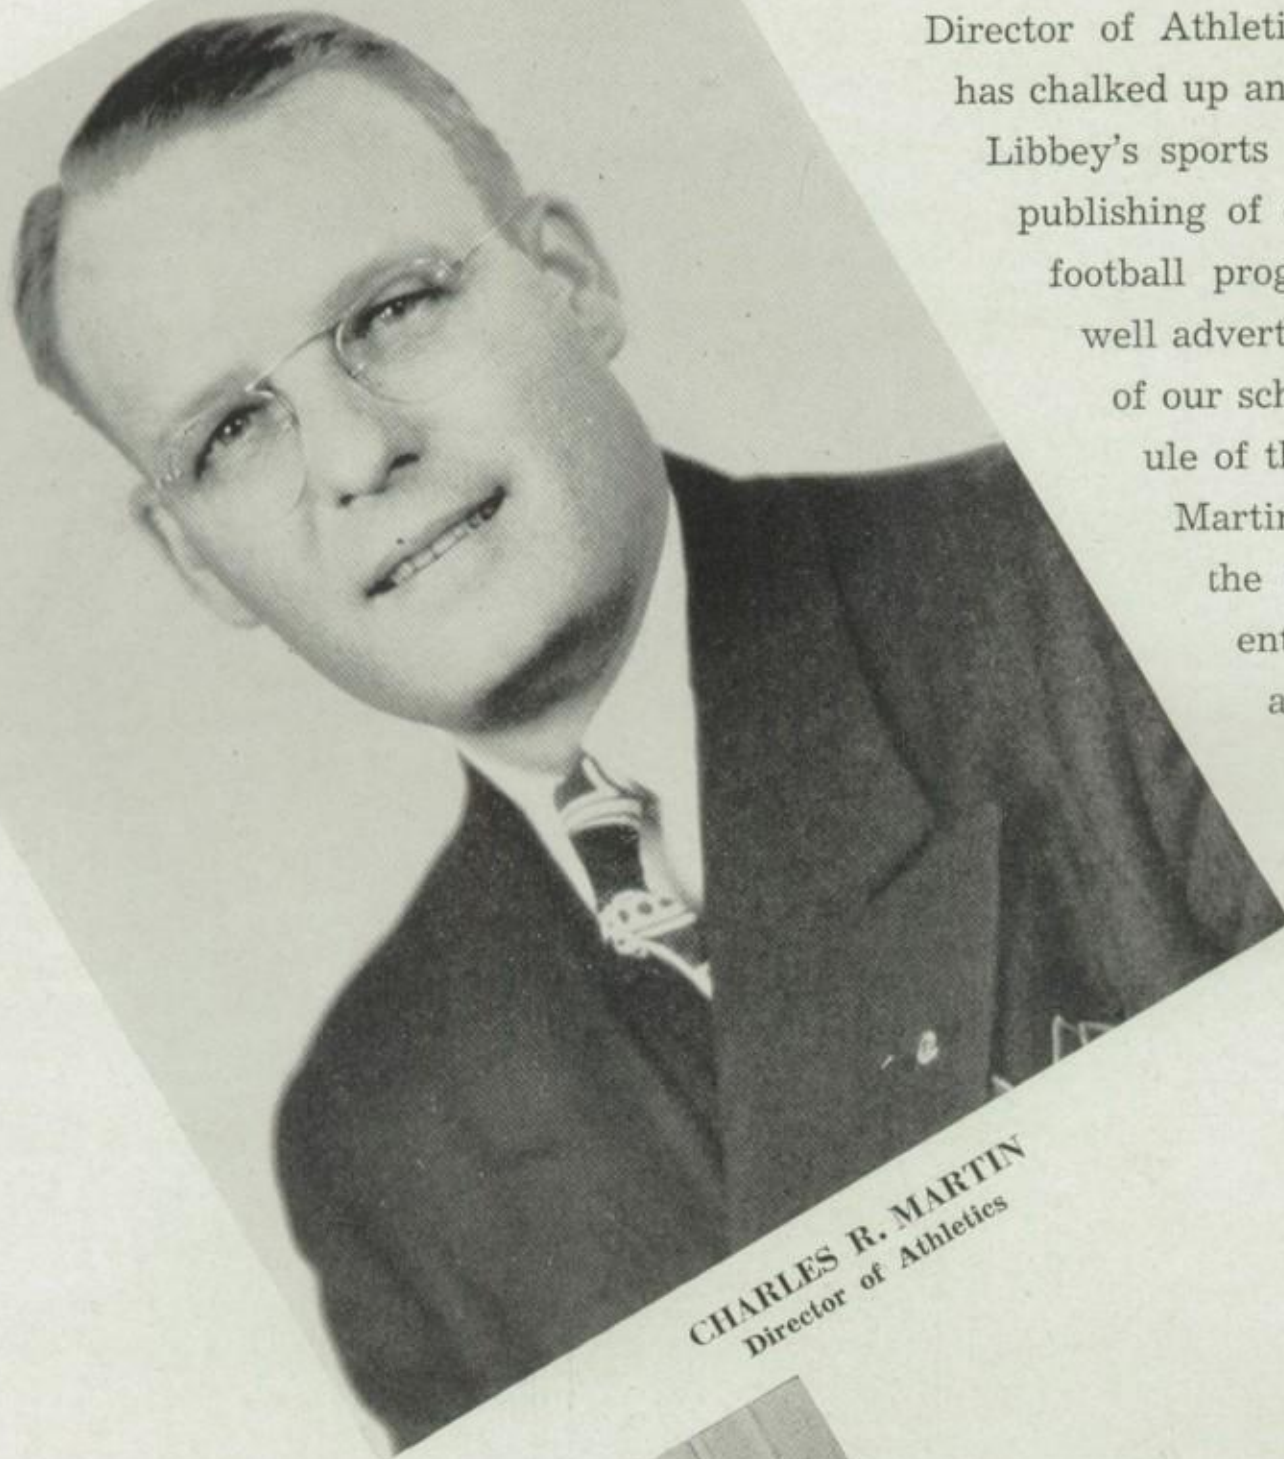

A leader must be respected and liked. Mr. Harding certainly has fulfilled the qualities of a leader for in this his first year as head coach, by patience, endurance, hard work, and knowledge of the game, he guided the team to the city championship and won their friendship at the same time. During the basketball season, as coach of the Reserve team, Mr. Harding was right there putting a boy in, taking a boy out. He was their coach, directing the practices, and giving them confidence. So, to you, Mr. Harding, a swell guy, congratulations on your splendid attainments!

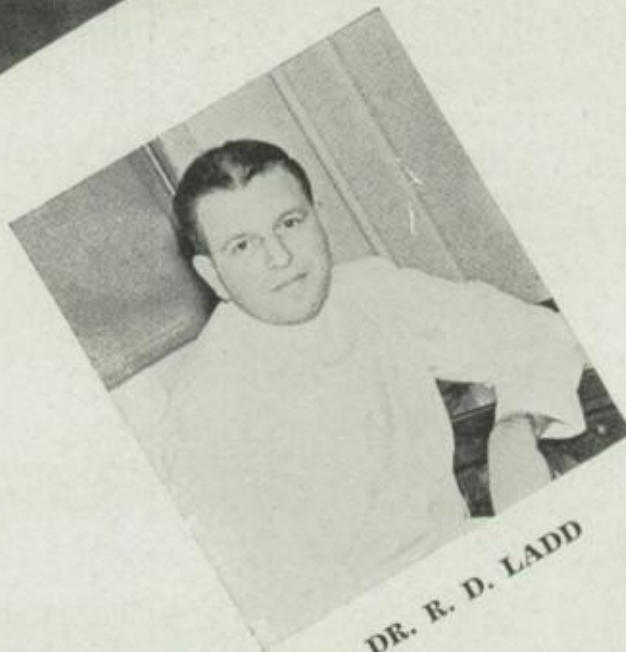

The team rightfully gloats over the following hard-won trophies: Downtown Coaches; W.S.P.D.; Toledo Faculty Managers: Dr. Neill; and University of Michigan!

ADMINISTRATION

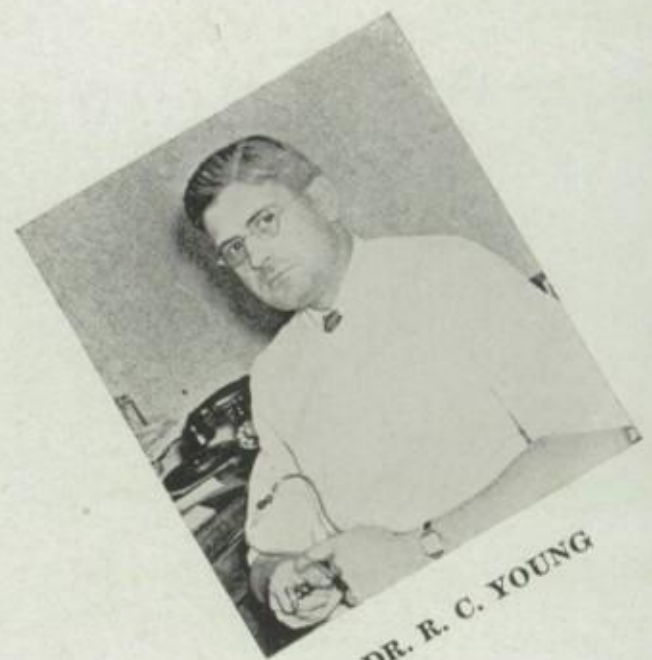

Director of Athletics, Charles R. Martin, has chalked up another creditable year in Libbey's sports history. Continuing his publishing of colorful and interesting football programs, Mr. Martin has well advertised the name and fame of our school. The football schedule of the past year proved Mr. Martin's skill in planning; and the financial success of the entire season of all sports attests to his ability. Aiding him in his various duties was Orville Henrion, whose help was invaluable throughout Libbey's victorious 1946 - 1947 year of athletic gain.

BOWLING

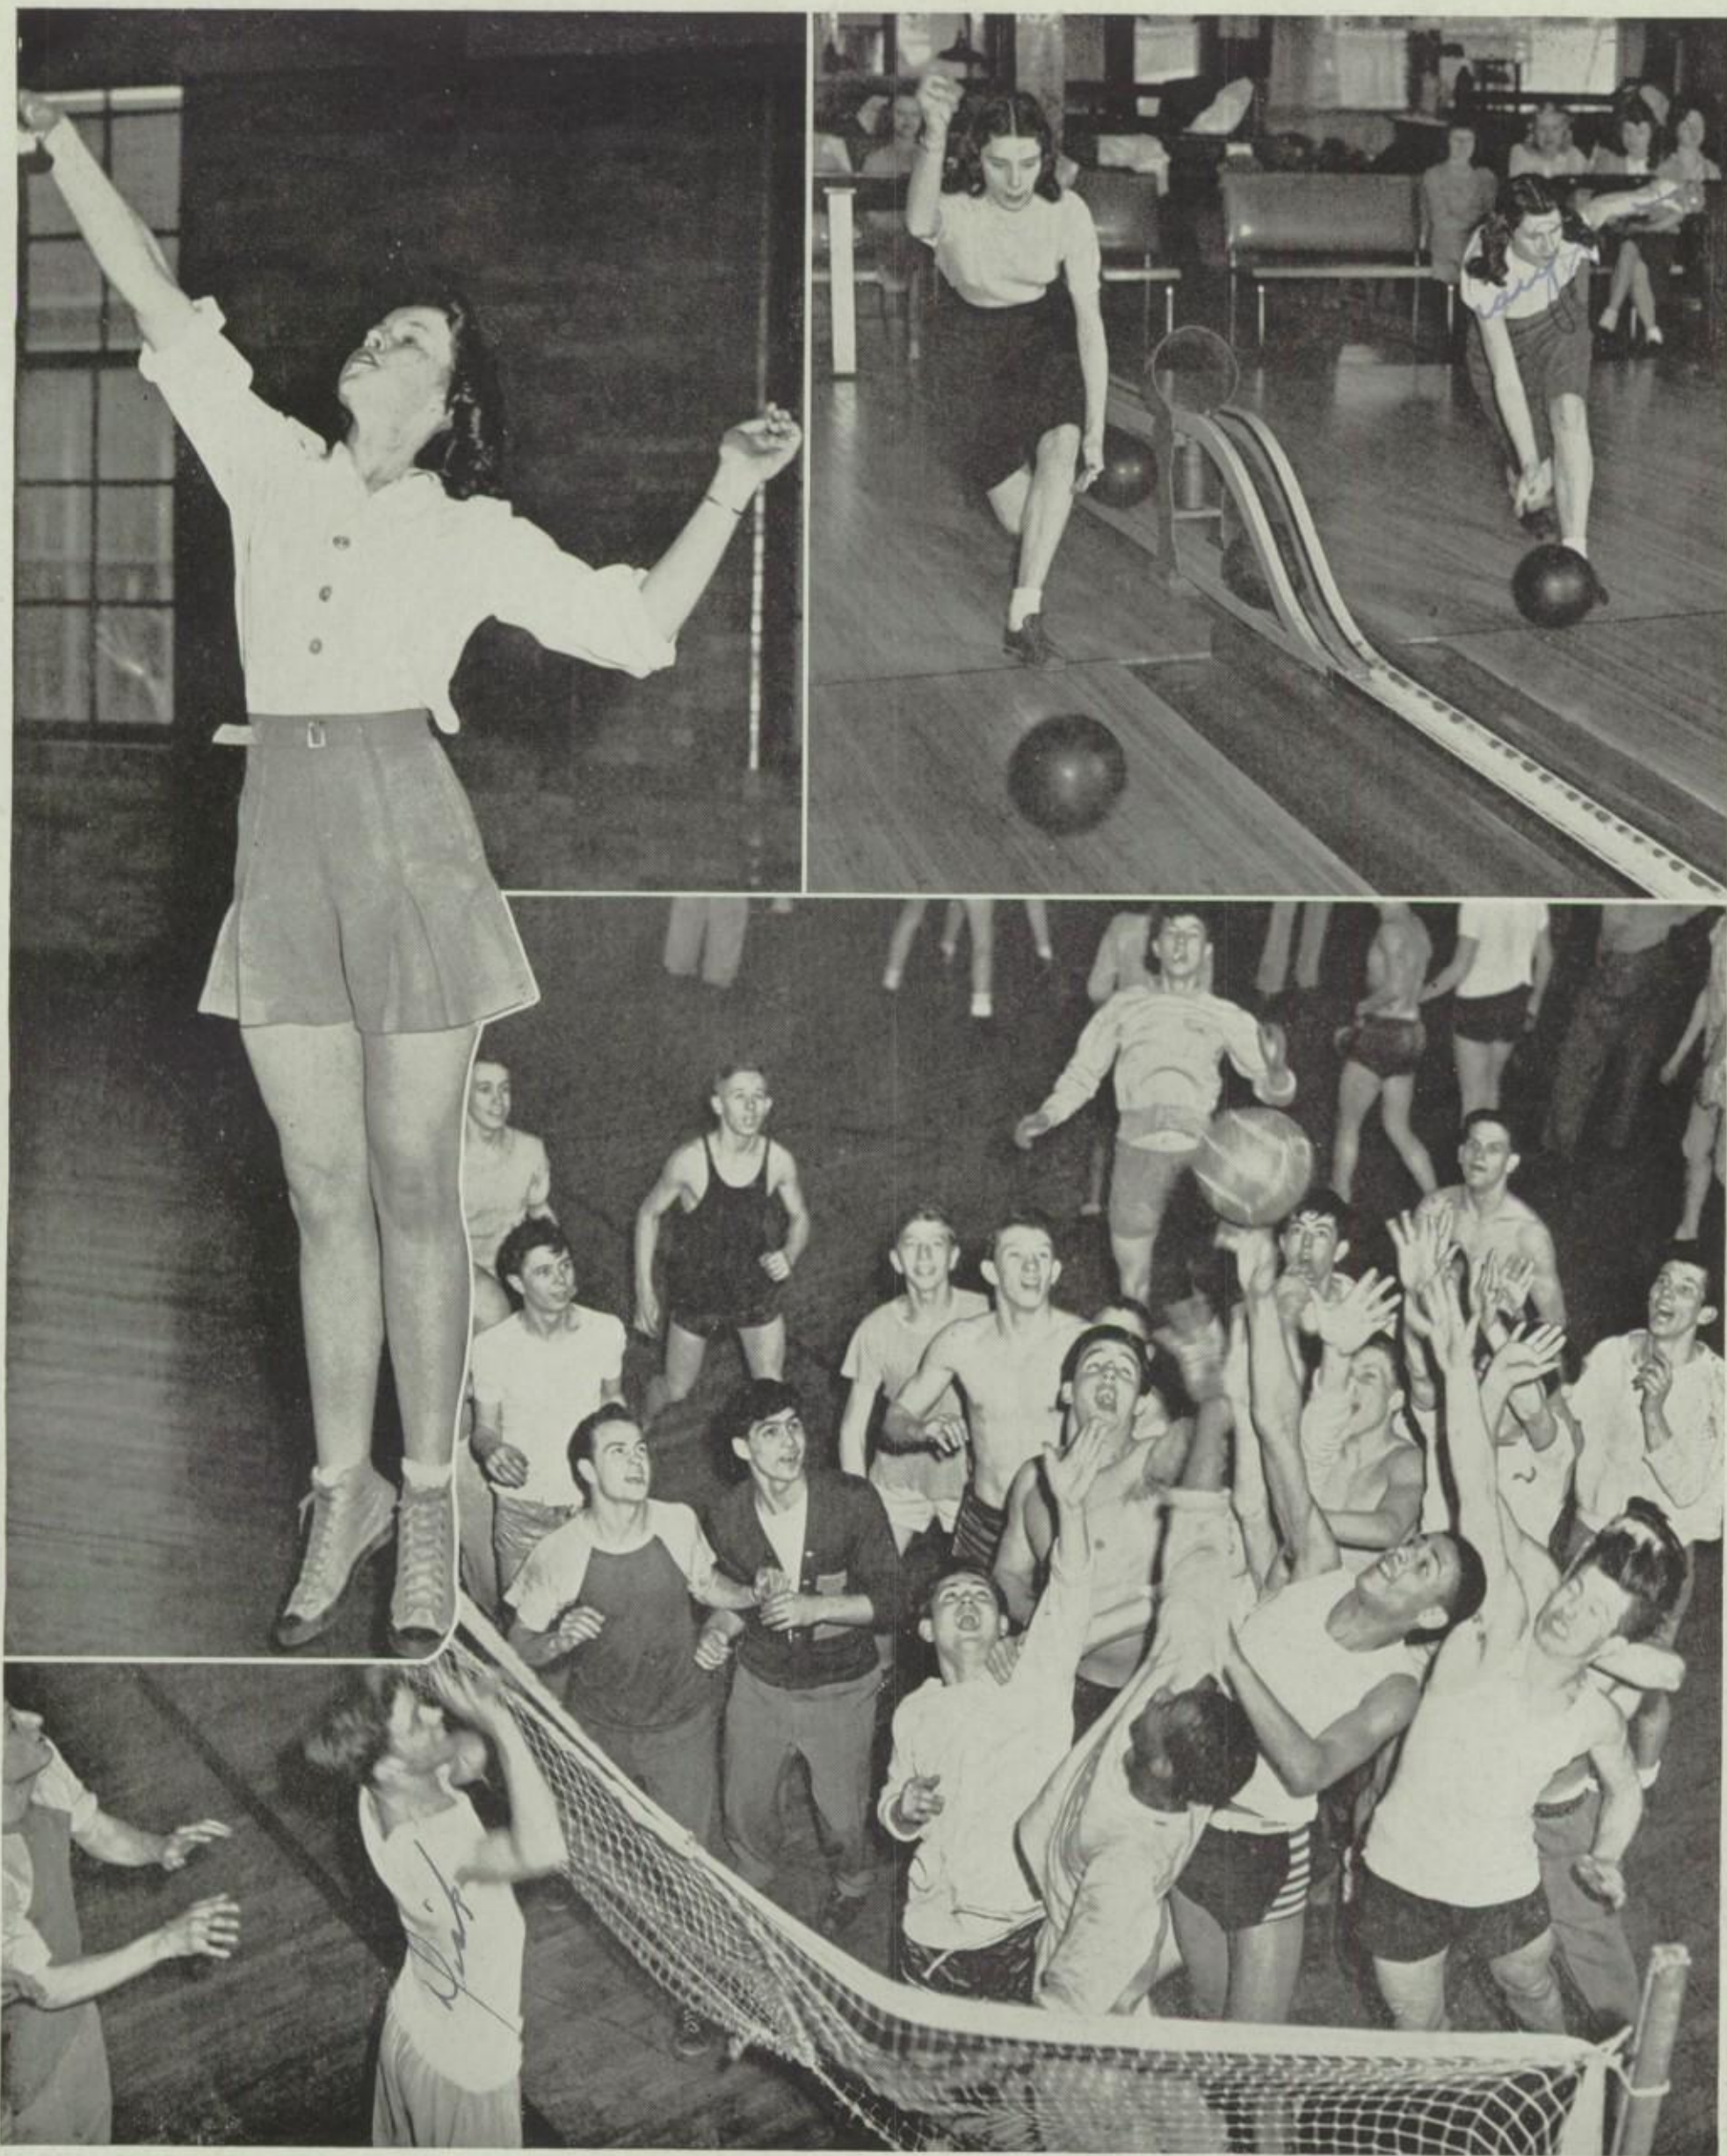

INTRAMURALS

Ed Lillich, Gene Gendaszek, Jerry Kurck, Dick Bartell, Dave Kaczala, Frank Gwodz, Vern Fauble, Lyle Hooper, and Johnny Fleck show us that cheerleading can be lots of fun. ● By the look on Joe Taberner's face, those weights must be awfully heavy! ● Two sophomore girls do an expert job on the "Duck n' Dive." ● Perfect teamwork is needed for this balance!

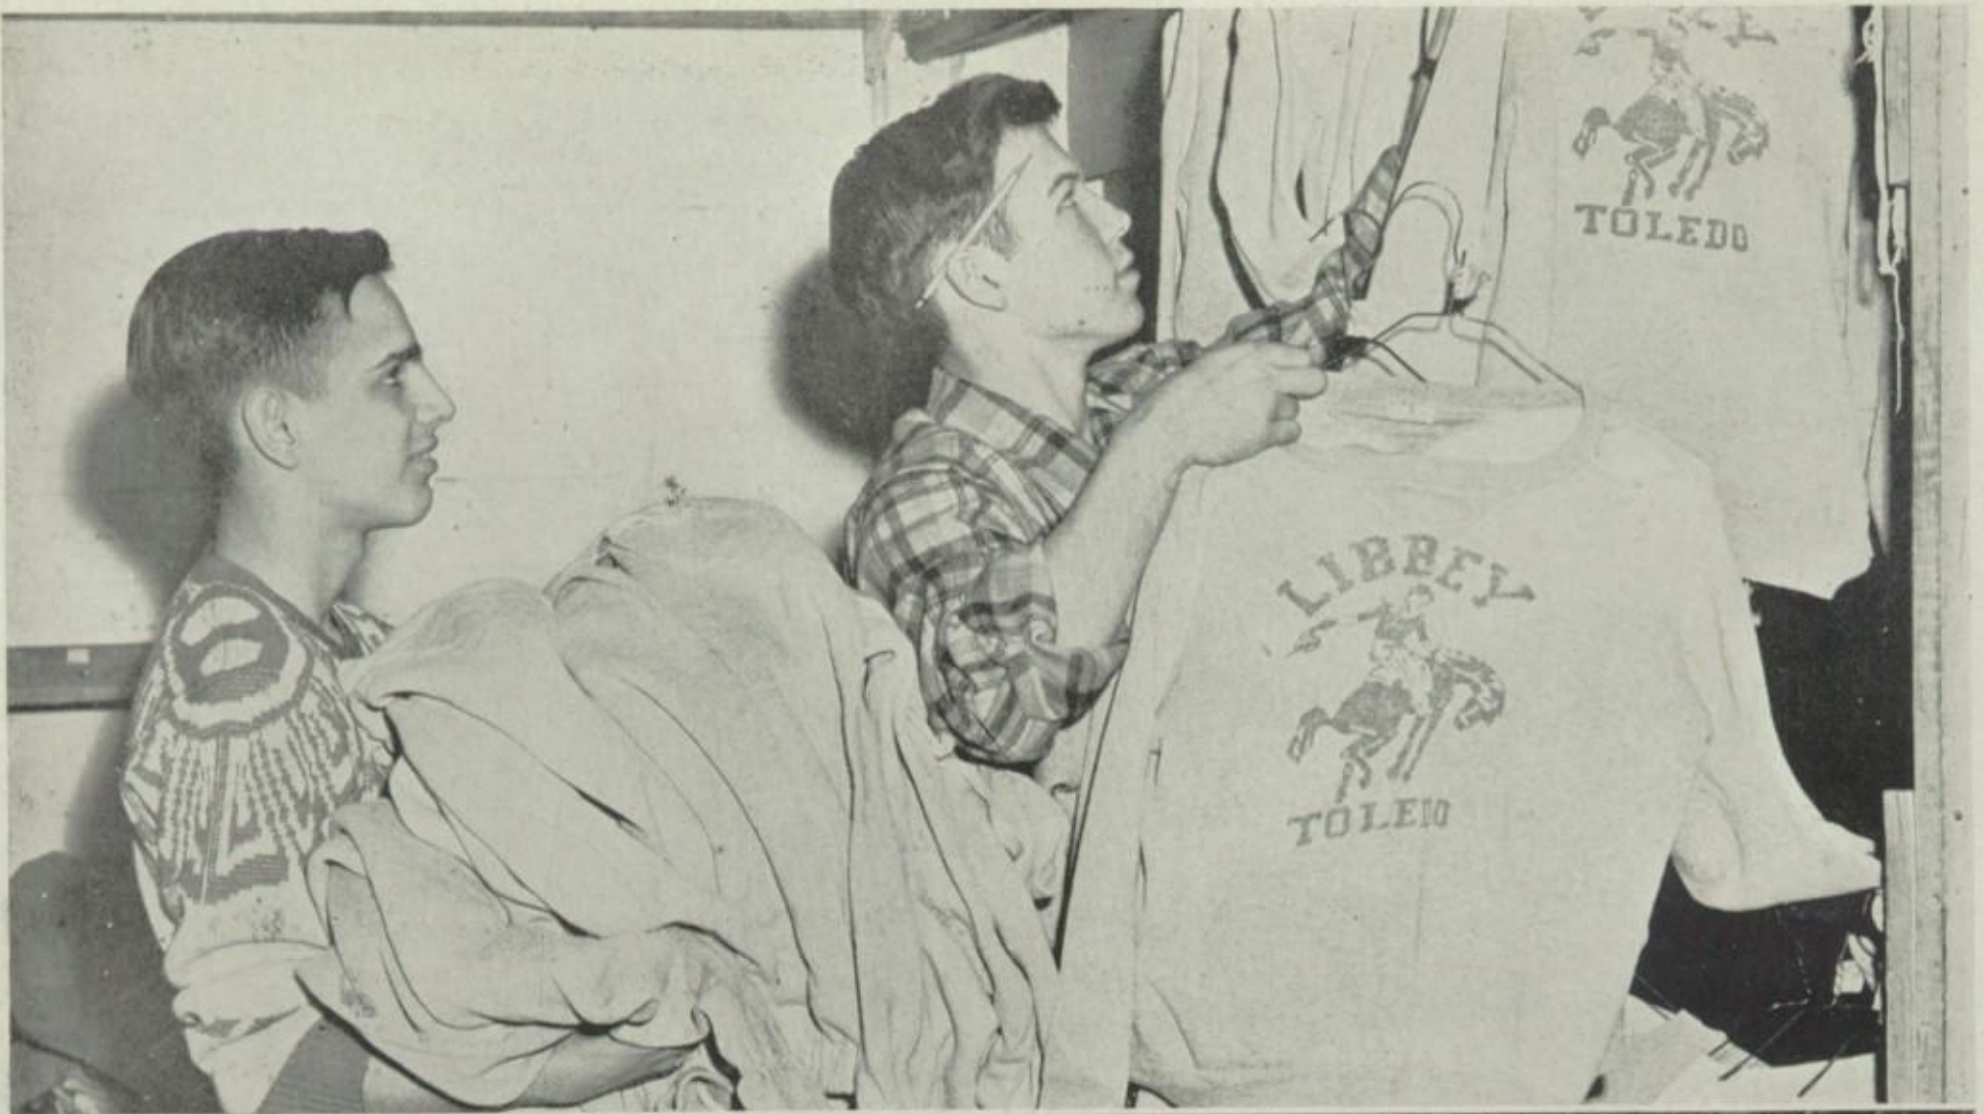

INTRAMURALS

Are those gloves loaded with lead? Bob asked Danny. • Martha Glanzman, Helen Ensign, and Marilyn Jones prove that one can "float through the air with the greatest of ease!" • Helen Revill, Lois Kachenmeister, Rose Van Dorp, and Norma LaMont are about to pick up those heavy bowling balls over at Milo's.

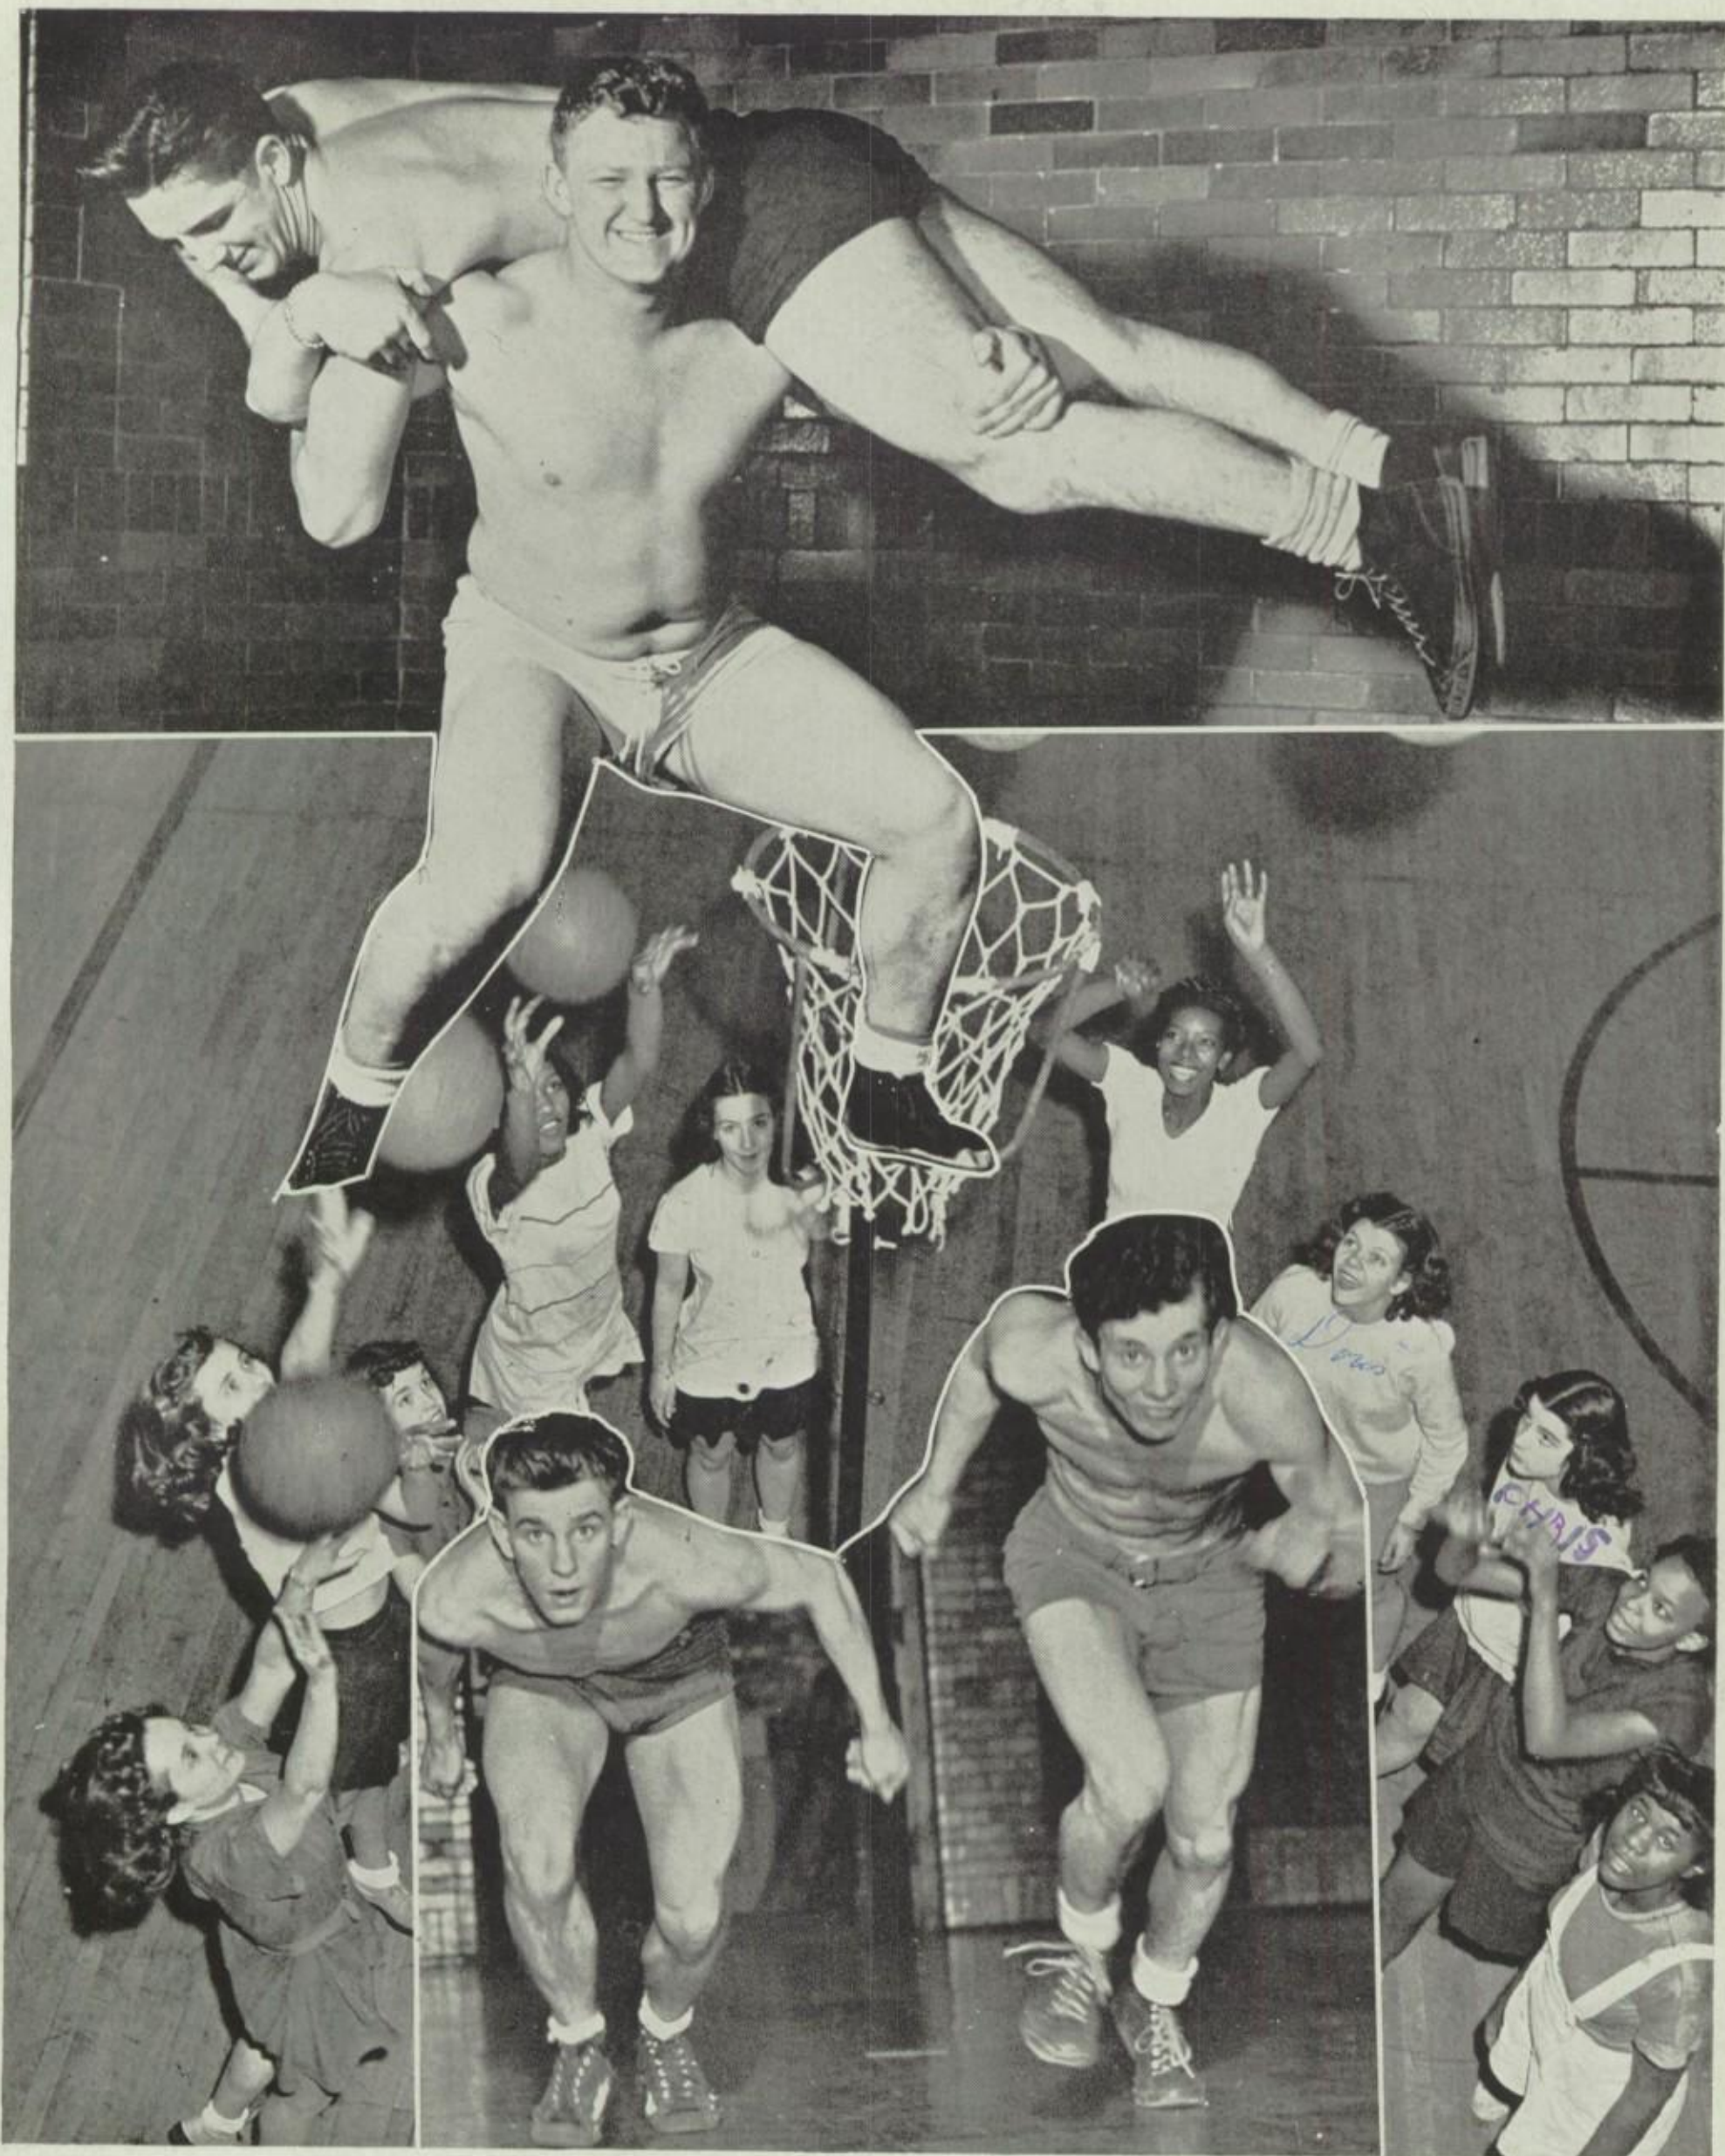

INTRAMURALS

Yvonne displays good form in badminton. ● Will they be strikes, Joanne and Mary Jane? ● The boys show us that volleyball can be an exciting game.

INTRAMURALS

Our managers, Bill Bliss and Jim Cardwell, once again take down the jerseys for track. ● Acrobatics can be fun, according to Wilma Hischka and Marilyn Arner.

INTRAMURALS

Is Bob Ratajczak really that light, or is Jerry Manz that powerful? ● The G.A.A. teams throw perfect baskets. ● Jack Baker and John Fleck get their daily workouts in relays.

MRS. DELLA WILLIAMS PAINE

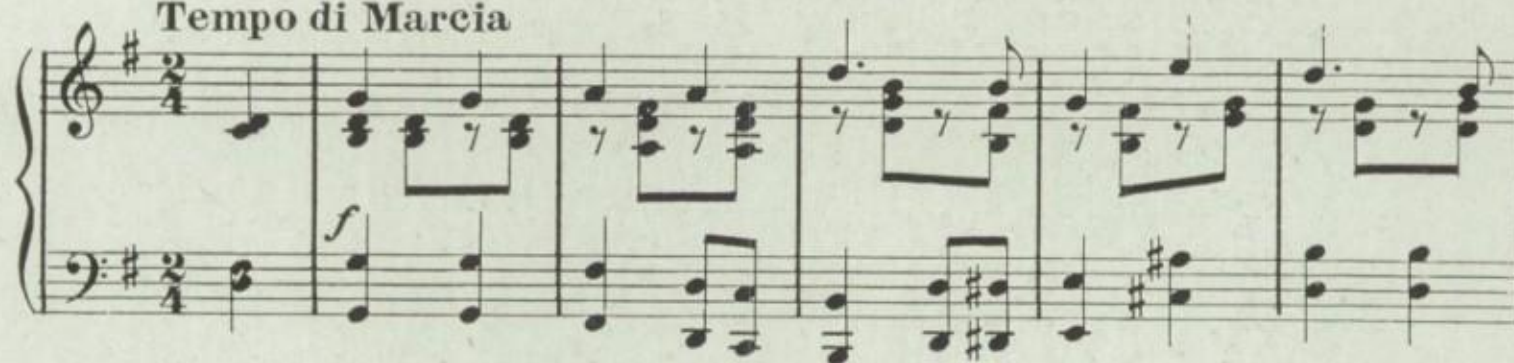

Our Song Writer

Every year the songs of Libbey become more deeply a part of our school tradition. To the author of them, Mrs. Paine, we extend our gratitude and assure her of our sincere affection.

The Blue And Gold

Words and Music by
DELLA WILLIAMS PAINE

Tempo di Marcia

The first system shows the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The vocal line starts with a whole rest for three measures, then enters with the lyrics. The piano accompaniment continues from the introduction. The lyrics are:

Dear	Lib - bey	School, our
Dear	Lib - bey	School, may
Dear	Lib - bey	Team, we'll

The piano accompaniment includes a piano (p) dynamic marking.

The second system continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The vocal line has three lines of lyrics with blank lines for continuation. The piano accompaniment provides harmonic support. The lyrics are:

hearts	are true,	As we	sing	our	praise	of	thee.	_____
ne'er	a cloud	Be -	dim	thy	glo -	rious	name.	_____
fight	for you	As you	con -	quer	ev -	'ry	foe.	_____

The piano accompaniment concludes with a triplet of eighth notes in the right hand.

1—A girl's face is more easily made up than her mind. 2—A winner of a Dr. Williams Door Prize is the envy of the school. 3—Tch! Tch! Boys—at your age?

- 4—Oh, me! Behind bars once more.
- 6—16,000 grid fans pack our stadium as we play host to the annual Round-Robin Football game.
- 11—The annual crowd appears in the halls to learn their locker numbers as we make out ink schedules.
- 12—Miss Henderson's off with a bang . . . her first test!?!?
- 13—The "little" Freshmen stand aghast while the "big" Seniors show 'em how, at our first mass meeting.
- 14—Our team's off to a flying start . . . we trounce Akron South 32-0!
- 16—"Buddy-Buddy" week commences.
- 17—Just think, Seniors, only 8 months and 24 days until we graduate!
- 20—Mr. Martin plays M. C. at a super, short, and peppy mass meeting.
- 21—We pay 21 points for the Little Brown Jug!
- 22—"Buddy-Buddy" week ends.
- 24—Schedule 3 and a movie . . . we love it!
- 26—All that slaving I do in study halls is getting me down. I make a motion we go to school 2 days a week and have a 5 day week-end.
- 27—Good schedule, good mass meeting, good Crystal, and the game . . . oh, well, we can't have everything. We tie with Woodward 0-0!

- 1—Our friend and song leader, Mr. Campbell, paid us a visit. We like him.
- 3—Watch the birdie! Our Senior class faces the camera for Edelian pictures.
- 4—Big day today . . . mass meeting; the Seniors take the Patch Test; we slaughter Central 39-6; and the Student Council gives a neat dance after the game.
- 5—The social year begins with the Phils giving a swell roast at Pearson Park.
- 7—This Monday isn't blue 'cause we had a surprise mass meeting for our victorious team. On to Waite!
- 8—Betty Grable and Dick Haymes invade Libbey in "Diamond Horseshoe." (Woo, those legs!)
- 11—The other lits will have to go some to top that Phil Mass Meeting and have a game afterwards, as thrilling as the game in which Libbey beat the "mighty" Waite 8-6!!!
- 12—The Peries are on the beam this year too, as they give a super roast at Side-Cut Park.
- 14—Those Mondays are really swell when we have a mass meeting; especially to honor our team in defeating Waite!
- 15—Now that magician couldn't have put everything up his sleeves. He was good, n'est-ce pas?
- 17—The big cheeses of the senior class are: Bruce Bashore, Donna Walker, Carmen Gerig, and Eugene Sund. Congratulations, Kids!

- 18—That trip to Mishawaka, Indiana will go down as a red letter day for all who went . . . our own train; Mr. Martin leading the band; invading a small town with 600 students; and winning 30-12 . . . we won't forget!
- 21—How many couples resulted from that train ride? How many broke up?
- 22—Big tragedy . . . the movie "For Whom the Bell Tolls" was so long that we ran out of food to eat!
- 23—We all are thrilled to see Mr. Williams after 2 long years!
- 24—The Zets take us to "Wanna Wanna Beatum Island" in the Pacific for a swell mass meeting.
- 25—What a day! No school and the team rides over Scott 32-0.
- 30—Don't be frightened, kids, it's only "Silas" Sund in his new blue sweater!
- 31—The Dramatic Club has stew after the One Act Plays.

- 1—The Forum puts one over . . . mass meeting, that is! The rains came, but we beat Hamilton anyway, 19-12.
- 4—Grade cards . . . need we say more?
- 5—"Leave us have more gooder movies like 'Duffy's Tavern'."
- 7—Shakespeare a la Alan Ludden is O. K.
- 8—The Choir does their share by giving the team a swell mass meeting; the team does their share by romping over Woodward 40-13.
- 9—Fort Meigs is the scene of the Zet roast, as they crash the social calendar for 1946.
- 11—A medal for Bruno and Rowe . . . they prove to be excellent speakers at the Prince of Peace Contest.
- 12—"My Chinese Wife" was reviewed by Mrs. Conn . . . now the team eats at the Senior Friendship Football Banquet.
- 14—Flash! The Junior class election returns . . . Jack Wainwright, Agatha Bruno, Mary Collins, and Jim Stambaugh.
- 15—The 12th annual Football Banquet was presented last night by the Senior Friendship Club. Nice, wasn't it fellows?
- 19—We see half of "And Then There Were None." After a brief intermission, we see the other half. Oh well, films can break.
- 22—May all the coming dances in the school year be as nice as the Cowboy Round-up.
- 25—Those Q.D. and Forum pins certain girls are wearing couldn't have resulted from the Round-up . . . or could they?
- 27—Three cheers for the Peries . . . that was certainly a very praise-worthy mass meeting and a grand one to finish up our football season!
- 28—Burr . . . it was cold but we were all out there at DeVilbiss to cheer our team on to a 25-6 victory . . . city champs of '46!

Dear Alice,
 I do want you to know how much I have appreciated your fine help in our Testing Department. You have spent many busy hours at work when I know you probably wished to study.

Congratulations to

LIBBEY HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

of 1947

You have won considerable success in your high school

DECEMBER

- 2—Back to school and what do they say? Please buy a ticket to the Senior Class Play.
- 3—It's all out for our magazine drive. Are you doing your share?
- 4—The Freshmen are beginning to cry for Santa Claus.
- 5—The Seniors come through with a second victory . . . first the Round-up, and now a rollicking play, "The Adorable Spendthrift."
- 10—Now, Mr. Rusie, we ask you, was it exactly nice to leave the "big" Seniors out of the auditorium program today?
- 11—Say, our varsity team looks good. They beat the Alumni 57-36! Basketball, that is!
- 12—The football team members are now sporting their hard earned "L's." Ratajczak has a silver football besides. His teammates voted him the "best player".
- 14—Our basketball season opens with a victory over Sylvania Burnham 42-43. Team Rah!
- 17—Our varsity loses, 32-38, to Whitmer; our reserves win. Oh well, we can't have everything.
- 18—Those who sold magazines were rewarded by a swell movie while the rest of us sat and slaved in classes.
- 20—Who could ask for a nicer Christmas program than the one presented today?
- 21—The "Holly-Daze" . . . a sharp name for a really sharp Peri Dance!
- 22—Our basketball team didn't fare so well at Mansfield. We lost two games. Better luck next time, fellows!
- 24—The day before Christmas and everyone is wishing everyone else a . . .
- 25—Merry Christmas!
- 26—Call the doctor.
- 27—I'm all right.
- 28—Port Huron and another loss, 28-22!
- 31—Some things are better left unsaid! (New Year's Eve)

JANUARY

- 1—Happy New Year!
- 2—We break the resolutions we made yesterday . . . at least most of us!
- 6—The old halls ring with resounding joy (?) . . . the kids are back.
- 7—We're back in the old swing of things, darn! Our first league game and we lose to Macomber, 39-46.
- 9—The Q.D.'s are really rugged on their pledges. Only why should the rest of the school suffer with that odor of garlic?
- 10—Our freshmen team beat DeVilbiss; wish we could say the same for our reserves and varsity.
- 14—The Q.D.'s and Forums are old rivals, but who ever expected to see them stage a boxing match at the half-time of a basketball game? The games . . . Freshmen and Reserves win over Scott, but the Varsity lost.

- 15—Dr. Williams really was generous with the trophies. Bob Ratajczak was chosen "most valuable player," but the runners-up, Taberner, Bey, Keholm, and Manz, also got trophies. Congratulations!
- 16—Don't get caught without a hall permit. You'll be sorry! (Bill Weit, please take note!)
- 17—You guessed wrong . . . we beat Woodward! On to more victories!
- 19—We studied for 'xams!
- 20—Ditto.
- 21—Three down (ugh!) and three to go (ugh!)
- 23—Those neat decorations and the smooth orchestra . . . who could ask for more? Thanks Phils for throwing the "Snow-Ball"!
- 24—Waite at Libbey and a victory; to complete the evening the Forum gave a dance. More of that!
- 27—The vacation was wonderful but grade cards . . .
- 28—Why do we all enjoy Tuesdays? Movies! This time "A Bell for Adano."
- 29—Nuffin' doin'!
- 30—Today we love E. L. Bowsher and the weather man!
- 31—Central breaks our winning streak, but we can try again next Tuesday!

FEBRUARY

- 3—The Latin Department takes us back to the "Last Days of Pompeii". Education in the form of a movie is "all reet"!
- 4—Central drubs our basketball team, but only by 5 points. There's still the tournaments coming up . . . maybe we can beat 'em then?
- 5—Senior mass meeting . . . cheer up, Freshmen, maybe someday you'll be a Senior (?)
- 7—Senior Scholarship Tests and then the brains got out at noon . . . I guess it does pay at times to get A's, yes? We lose again to Macomber. Darn!
- 11—"The Bandit of Sherwood Forest" and basketball. We beat DeVilbiss; plus this, the Senior Friendship girls really raked in the dough at their dance!
- 12—The Q.D. initiation was held this evening, and believe it or not, the pledges are still alive!
- 13—This is the "tea season" . . . the Commercial Club held one today.
- 14—The Phils give a lovely tea; and we beat Scott!
- 26—The $64 question . . . Why are certain members of our basketball team sportin' bruises? Could they be from the Waite-Libbey game last night? Ask Keholm!
- 27—Didn't the Senior Friendship girls look nice in "spiked heels" today? The reason . . . a tea for their "maters".

MARCH

- 3—Well . . . we didn't fare so well at the basketball tournaments . . . Central outscores us!

- 5—Notice to Lib staff: The Q.D. pledges are quite the artists . . . take a gander at the posters they made for the "Shin-Dig". (Especially a certain D. Topolski's)
- 6—The greatest honor Libbey can bestow upon students was given to 43 Seniors and 21 Juniors today . . . induction into the National Honor Society.
- 11—Hurray! Another movie, "The House on 92nd Street."
- 13—What's this I hear about certain members of the National Honor Society wanting to know when they get their hall permits?
- 14—Friday . . . another Lenten Service and another evening at Calumet.
- 15—Weren't Leo Poenicke and his "drag" to the Q.D. Shindig lucky in winning Edelians? That was tops in dancing pleasure, fellows!
- 20—Once more that elite group meets . . . the Senior Friendship cabinet.
- 21—Our favorite day this week . . . Lenten Service; a talk by Eliz. Woodward; no first hour; National Honor meeting; and Commercial Club card party.
- 24—In Spring the young man's fancy turns to . . . ??
- 25—Some "roads" might lead to adventure, but the "Road to Utopia" only led to laughs.
- 26—At last! The gold footballs arrive! Congratulations, Rubell, you certainly deserved that basketball trophy!
- 27—The Junior's come up with "Newfires", their class play. Nice going; you'll make a fine Senior class next year!
- 28—The last Lenten Service was done as all Senior Friendship work is done . . . the tops! The Zets and their "Raindrop Hop" was tops too!

APRIL

- 1—Just another April, Fool!
- 7—We're glad to be back? Well . . . may be!
- 8—Once more it's a fatal day . . . grade cards!
- 11—There have been Proms and Proms, but never one to equal the one given tonight in the Trianon Ballroom. It was a "Seventh Heaven" to the tunes of Jack Runyan's orchestra!
- 14—April showers bring . . . muddy shoes.
- 15—"Love Letters" . . . no, not the one's Miss Allen catches certain Junior boys reading in 2nd hour study, but the movie!
- 16—The Senior Y-Teens have a breakfast . . . ummm, good food! At last the Peri pledges are rewarded with a formal initiation. It was a lovely tea.
- 18—Miss Costigan and her class deserve laurels for those one-act plays; and don't you love the way the ancient Romans ate? That Roman Banquet was fun!
- 23—Oh no! Not that! The Senior Y-Teens are holding another sale.
- 24—The mother's of the Junior Y-Teens are royally entertained at a tea.

- 28—What crazy commercial will Mensing and Rodgers come up with next for the P.A. system?
- 29—Betty Hutton "sends us" in "Incendiary Blonde".

MAY

- 1—Now it starts . . . the banquets. Our school paper, "The Crystal" opens the season!
- 2—The Forum dance, a gala affair! Nice going Bob Noethan and committee.
- 5—The Freshmen seem to be getting older . . . we need new ones.
- 6—The year's best entertainment comes up with the National Honor Variety Show.
- 7—Another banquet . . . the Hi-Y Mother and Son!
- 8—Commercial Club Banquet.
- 9—French Club Banquet.
- 12—Home Economics Banquet.
- 13—No banquets! A movie though, "The Virginian".
- 14—The Seniors begin to buy their graduation clothes. Doesn't seem possible does it?
- 17—The Phils at the Hillcrest and the Zets at the Women's Club. Speaking of banquets when does the big "Senior Feast" occur?
- 21—Dear Diary:
"Wisht" this was Friday instead of Wednesday!
- 22—Don't the Hi-Y boys look "duddy" in aprons? . . . They served the Friendship girls at their banquet tonight.
- 23—The Choir and Band give a combined concert. Praises to Maestro McClure!
- 26—Guess what Harry had on today? His "L" sweater. We know you're proud of it, but isn't it getting a little warm?
- 27—Our last movie of the year and a good one . . . "The Wonderman" (that's Danny Kaye, not Keholm!)
- 28—What's this I hear? . . . certain Seniors have "Senioritis"???
- 29—Now that spring is here you can find the gang almost any night at the Drive-In!
- 31—The Peri Banquet, and looking over the calendar, wouldn't you call May the "month of banquets"?

JUNE

- 2—The end draws nigh!
- 3—Calumet is passe . . . the fad is now Centennial!
- 5—We're all pleased with the Edelians . . . especially the dedication!
- 7—The 11th hour.
- 8—Baccalaureate . . . Church at least once a year.
- 9—Exams . . . we expected the worst and got it!
- 10—"To be or not to be" . . . graduated?
- 11—The red letter day . . . commencement!
- 12—'Bye! Don't forget, school starts at 8:25 A.M. September . . . who cares?

Dear Alice,
We've certainly had fun in school grade. I hope you are. Here's wishing you all the luck in the world.
There is, for sure.
It doesn't seem as if this is really the end of the school year. It has been a lot of fun. You have helped to make this year a very happy one.
I sincerely hope to see you next year and during the summer.
Tom Rigney

Dear Alice,
I wish you loads of luck. So does every one else.
You're a swell bowler even if you beat me
most of the time.
Had a grand time
S.A.A. this year & last. I probably won't ever see you again but I won't forget you.
Doris Harris

Dear Alice,
May your future
hold happiness,
success, and luck.
! Linda

Dear Alice,
I hope that your as big a success as your dream of being.
Tom Froko

Dear Alice:
The best of everything to you in your every day. Carl Turner

Dear Alice
I've had lots of fun with you and I wish you the very best of everything.
your best friend

Dear Alice:
I first met you in Sunday School and I've spent three long years in school with you.
I'll always consider you a dear friend. If I ever make it back to church I won't be losing sight of you.
Best of luck to you in the future.
Sincerely,
Hilda Pedler

Dear Alice,
Four years we've struggled through together and now
it's coming to a close.
It's been a lot of fun though, and as have you it's been sweet knowing, there's wishing you the best in future years.
Shirley Willard

Dear Alice,
What would we do without you in chemistry. Best of luck to you in the future.

Dear Alice:
I have enjoyed being in school with you very much. You are a very nice girl and a student as one to me.

Dear Alice,
Don't ever forget our English classes. We had a lot of fun and since there isn't much room here I'll wish you the best luck possible in all you do.
